Moscow Dispatches Say That 47th and 24th German Tank Corps Routed And Estimate That Besides Nearly 10,000 Officers and Men Invaders Lost Over 260 Tanks, 600 Vehicles and Many Field Guns

NAZI U-BOATS STILL SLASHING AT CONVOY

Moscow, Sept. 13—(AP)—The Red Army was reported today to have rolled back a great German offensive on Bryansk, 220 miles southwest of Moscow, to have recaptured 26 towns and villages, and inflicted a loss of almost 10,000 Germans in a long, bloody battle.

The German drive was reported made by 12 German infantry divisions (about 180,000 men) and two tank corps.

Dispatches said the 47th and 24th German tank corps were routed and estimated that besides nearly 10,000 officers and men, the Germans lost more than 260 tanks, 600 vehicles and hundreds of field guns.

The Germans broke through toward Bryansk, midway on the Kiev-Moscow railway, late in August, according to these reports, but were defeated by a Russian counter-offensive which began 13 days ago.

In the sector about 150 miles northwest of Bryansk, persistent Red Army counter-attacks were said to have recaptured Setolovo, a village in the vicinity of Smolensk. Two German regiments were reported broken through in these counter-attacks.

In the past week alone, these reports said, the Russians captured 238 tanks, 135 guns, nine armored cars and 28 mortars and the Germans left 3,800 dead on the battlefield.

Tank units themselves were estimated to have destroyed or capturned 79 tanks, 32 guns and to have killed 2,500 Germans in a single battle.

In attacks on Nazi-held airdromes near the towns of Orsha, Mogilev, Roslavl and Bukhov behind the broad Bryansk-Smolensk zone, the Red air force was said to have downed 50 German planes in one week and destroyed more than 200 tanks and 500 trucks.

At the same time an increasing threat to Kiev, capital of the Ukraine, was disclosed in official acknowledgment of the fall of Chernigov.

Russian war correspondents said the Germans first concentrated

Gen. Pershing Quietly Observing His 81st Birthday Anniversary

Washington, Sept. 13—(AP)—General John J. Pershing became 81 years old today, observing the occasion quietly and without ceremony at Walter Reed Hospital here where friends said he had been undergoing his annual physical checkup.

In a message of birthday greeting to the army, the man who commanded the A. E. F. in France a quarter century ago declared that "there is no nation in the world whose citizenry affords better soldiers than the United States."

"Our men have the spirit and the stamina to defend their country at all costs," he declared. "This was shown in 1917 and will be again should the need arise." The message was issued through the army and

Cooperation of Merchants And Householders Solicited in Order to Properly Open Week's Sale of Defense Savings Stamps

LAST-MINUTE ADVICE

Plans for the 15-minute blackout to be held here Monday evening, starting at nine o'clock, to inaugurate "Retailers - for - Defense" week, being sponsored by the Retail Merchandising Committee of the Warren Chamber of Commerce, were completed today and the cooperation of merchants and householders was requested in order to make the event a worthy introduction of the week's sale of Defense Savings Stamps.

Merchants should have someone ready to turn off all lights promptly at nine o'clock and every home in the community should have all lights extinguished or the windows closely curtained, it was stated by the committee chairman. Flashlights should be kept handy for use if needed. Matches and candles should not be used because of fire hazards.

A sound truck, equipped with a siren, will be operated throughout the length of the town five minutes before the blackout. This will be followed at nine o'clock by the blowing of whistles and ringing of church bells for about five minutes, after which Carroll A. Fowler will play patriotic music on the chimes of the First Methodist church. Similar music will be

CEILING ON HARD COAL ASSAILED

Eight Major Anthracite Producers Send Word to Price Administrator They "Cannot Accede" To His Order Canceling A 15-Cent a Ton Increase Scheduled to Become Effective Monday

SITUATION PREJUDGED MINE OWNERS CLAIM

Philadelphia, Sept. 13.—(AP)—The eight major anthracite producers sent word to Price Administrator Leon Henderson today that they "cannot accede" to his order cancelling a 15-cent a ton increase scheduled to become effective Monday.

Walter Gordon Merritt, counsel for the companies which produce more than 60 per cent of the nation's hard coal used mostly for heating homes, said Henderson's order intended to freeze prices at August 15 levels indicated he "prejudged the situation."

"'Otherwise" Merritt wrote the price administrator, "there could be no doubt in your mind that the record fully supports the contention of both operators and mine workers that prices heretofore announced, effective Sept. 15, are necessary to sustain the present wage structure and to reduce the operating deficits so prevalent in the industry."

Merritt said the companies were ready to co-operate with the government in halting run-away commodity prices but "th'e'y cannot, consistently with the obligations imposed upon them, accede to any arbitrary price ceiling, even though temporary, which will not permit the fulfillment of such obligations."

WAGE ADVANCES FOR WORKERS IN PLANE PLANTS

Los Angeles, Sept. 13.—(AP)—Workers in eight major airplane plants of southern California congratulated themselves today upon a blanket increase in wages.

Aviation company officials said the increase in payroll costs would run into millions, but added that the advance was arranged in an effort to standardize the pay throughout the industry.

The flat increase of 10 cents an hour was ordered for all workers not previously benefitted in wage adjustments. In general, it will be retroactive to last July 1.

It also automatically put into effect at all plants a beginners' scale of 60 cents an hour, rising to 75 cents an hour over a period of three months. Several of the plants previously had established this basic scale, an advance of 10 cents an hour or more over former scales.

Douglas Aircraft Co., Vultee Aircraft, Inc., and Northrup Aircraft, Inc., announced the blanket increase, and the AFL International Association of Machinists was expected to ratify a similar increase today for workers at Lockheed Aircraft Corp., and its

Washington, Sept. 13—(AP)—Reliable congressional informants said today a joint conference committee had accepted virtually all Senate changes in the record-breaking revenue bill, including amendments estimated to add $52,800,000 to the tax burden on corporations.

The committee, appointed to adjust differences between the Senate and House versions of the revenue measure, was reported by one source to have written a compromise bill estimated by congressional experts at $3,550,000,000, which is $33,900,000 less than the estimated Senate total and $333,600,000 more than the expected revenue under the House measure. However, another legislator expressed the opinion that the compromise version would raise slight-

Weather-Beaten Wreckage Of Tiny Plane Tells of Disaster That Befell Clarksburg Flier Attempting Sea Hop in '39

LOCATED BY R. A. F.

St. John's, Newfoundland, Sept. 13 — (AP) — The weather-beaten wreckage of a tiny plane found in the wilderness of Newfoundland told today of the disaster which befell Thomas H. Smith, who set off for trans-Atlantic adventure in his "Baby Clipper" two years ago.

"Walking out to avoid freezing," said a note left in the plane by the Clarksburg, W. Va., flier, who took off from Old Orchard Beach, Me., May 28, 1939, and was never seen nor heard from since.

No trace has been found of the flier.

Smith's note indicated that he realized he had only a slight chance to be found after the crash of his frail, 670-pound plane far from any settlement.

He wrote that his next of kin was Harvey S. Smith, of Clarksburg, W. Va. Then, it is believed, he began his search for civilization immediately, knowing his plight had been unobserved and that searchers would have to explore a vast area of sea and land between his starting point and his goal, Slyne Head, Ireland.

The exact place of the crash was not disclosed, but reports here said it was about 50 miles inland in western Newfoundland.

SAILORS STRIKE OVER WAR BONUS

New York, Sept. 13—(AP)—The Seafarers' International Union of North America (AFL) called a walkout at 11 a. m. (EST) today over a war-bonus dispute, ordering its members of "all ships bound for Axis or Allied ports."

"This strike will affect all ships bound for Axis or Allied ports," said John Hawk, union secretary-treasurer. "We are naturally not against carrying material to England, but since the Nazis are sinking boats regardless of location we want to protect our men. The operators show no signs of negotiating."

In New York harbor, three ships with cargoes of supplies for American defense bases in Bermuda and the West Indies cancelled their sailings as the crews walked out.

Hawk said the strike would af-

Shower of Money to Rain Down on Winners of Unusual Contest and Trade Expansion Launched Today

Warren and surrounding towns' babies, glorified sweethearts of our community, are to be escorted along their starting paths in life by progressive business concerns in cooperation with the Warren Times-Mirror.

A shower of cash, designated to provide the business educational foundation of success in life for a number of our protegees, is the rain down on winners of a Baby Election and Trade Expansion sponsored by this paper and the cooperating progressive business concerns.

Warren, North Warren, Sheffield, Youngsville, Clarendon, Pittsfield, Russell, and adjoining towns, and all rural children under six years of age are eligible for nomination. All they need is a picture for publication in this newspaper so that people of the community may choose their favorite, and arrangements even for their pictures without cost have been made by the Warren Times-Mirror.

This is to be a real election with real advantages at stake.

Two Thousand Dollars in cash and commissions, and two gold loving cups, bigger than many a baby, are the prizes—the Favorite Baby to receive the first cup, and the baby of opposite sex, polling the next highest number of votes will receive an identical cup; thus a King and Queen of Babyland will be elected.

The community's favorite baby will be given a cash award of $500 and the great loving cup, worth its weight in a lot of things.

The favorite baby will have a cabinet comprising the people's choice from the best babies that heaven ever sent for mortal exhilaration—the community's own.

They will be presented thrift anchors, cash awards whose final purpose is to provide our citizens of tomorrow with advantages which most adults of today never had.

God's gift to His Country—Baby Realm, is to enjoy an elaboration. The happiness-generators of our community are to receive the recognition which is their due.

Eighteen years, twenty years—even the ripened experience of old age will find them looking back on the gifts of their parents; the descendants when they were equipped with means to go onward even further than has been done in the past.

The election is your baby's election; your neighbor baby's election; Warren, East and North Warren, Chandlers Valley, Sugar Grove, Russell, Akeley, Starbrick, Pleasant Township, Irvin, Youngsville, Garland, Pittsfield, Torpedo, Grand Valley, Rogertown, Stone-

TOKYO MEETING TOLD JAPAN IS READY TO FIGHT

Tokyo, Sept. 13.—(AP)—Seigo Nakano, extreme nationalist political leader, told a great mass meeting today that Japan is prepared to fight to the last man in the event she cannot reach a settlement of her differences with the United States through diplomatic channels.

Nakano, whose speech was advertised as a reply to the Roosevelt-Churchill "Atlantic charter," discounted the possibility of a Japanese rapproachment with the United States and Britain because, he said, their positions are fundamentally opposed.

Tokyo newspapers reported Nakano's speech briefly, playing it down, and a Domei news agency broadcast also tended to minimize it. Only one paper, Chugai, carried a short story on page one, quoting Nakano as saying later that "America is using peace offensive tactics, sometimes conciliating, sometimes threatening Japan, while building an iron ring around her which is not iron but only wooden planks."

Nakano, head of the reactionary Tohokai political group, warned that Japan "must be vigilant lest prolongation of negotiations in Washington eliminate her chance to expand southward."

He accused Britain and the United States of trying to intimidate the Axis powers by using Soviet Russian resistance as propaganda, but declared the United States at present had her hands full in the Atlantic.

BATTLE OF ATLANTIC INCREASES

Britain Acknowledges Loss Of Eight Ships Out of Convoy from Which German High Command Says U-Boats Had Sunk 31, as Washington Quarters Discuss Action to Place Guns on Cargo Ships

PRESIDENT'S SPEECH STIRS ANGER IN REICH

By the Associated Press

The battle of the Atlantic increased in tempo today with Britain acknowledging loss of eight ships out of a convoy from which the German High Command said U-boats had sunk 31, and with Washington quarters predicting that American cargo vessels soon would be armed.

The British admiralty said the convoy had reached port after experiencing two U-boat attacks and an air assault, battling a raging storm and just escaping a Nazi surface raider. Torpedoes were acknowledged to have sunk three ships and bombs four. Another foundered in the gale after being damaged by a bomb.

The German High Command communique raised the claimed toll from a single convoy to 31—28 merchantmen and three warships. Yesterday it had claimed 22 freighters positively sunk and two probably by way of reply to President Roosevelt's order to U. S. Atlantic forces to shoot on sight any Axis raiders appearing in U. S.-patrolled waters. Apparently the two probables now are claimed as definite sinkings.

Discussion in Washington of guns for U. S. merchantmen was intensified by the announcement that another American-owned freighter of Panama registry, the Montana, was torpedoed Thursday morning while en route to Iceland, about 12 hours before the president's declaration against the Nazi raiders.

Arming the merchantmen would require congressional alteration of the neutrality act, but one legislator said he left a White House conference prior to Roosevelt's Thursday night speech with the impression that the suggestion soon would be put into concrete form.

UNION LEADERS PLAN ACTION IN MINERS' REVOLT

As Workers in Shenandoah Area Fields Schedule Vote to Decide Whether They Will Join Revolt, Disciplinary Action is Considered

LEWIS REMAINS SILENT

Hazleton, Sept. 13—(AP)—Leaders of 10,000 miners in the Shenandoah area of Pennsylvania's hard coal fields scheduled a vote today to decide whether the diggers would join the spreading rank-and-file revolt against increased union dues and assessments.

At the same time, officials of District Seven, CIO United Mine Workers of America, met to discuss possible disciplinary action against an already idle 10,000 miners who have closed 14 collieries since Tuesday.

The vote of the Shenandoah miners was arranged although closing of the mines for the usual week-end holiday halted at least temporarily the drive to spread the walkout.

Garrett Miller, a leader of the insurgents, called off the drive until Monday "to avoid possible bloodshed" after a band of 250 miners yesterday closed two more collieries in the Mahanoy City area and failed at a third, where fist fights broke out. Fourteen major collieries now are shut down.

Revolt chieftains said they were

NAZIS IN IRAN BEING DEPORTED

Teheran, Iran, Sept. 12.—(Delayed)—(AP)—Eighty Nazis bound for internment in India and Siberia left here by train today while British and Russian diplomats listened in irritation to their sieg heils echoing through Teheran's palatial marble depot.

Seventy-two of the group went by special train to Ahwaz, enroute to India, while eight were aboard one coach of a Kazvin train with Siberia as their destination.

Allied displeasure was manifest over a series of excuses and asserted misunderstandings whereby the German legation failed twice to deliver the prisoners and finally produced only 80 of the 275 men demanded of it.

Mash Notes 24 Years Old Causing Thrills

Two Rivers, Wis., Sept. 13—(AP)—A lot of Two Rivers women, many long married and some grandmothers, are receiving mash notes from Uncle Sam's young soldiers—for a 24-year-old reason.

When the Alumin Goods Manufacturing Company made army canteens during the World War, many of the girls employed as wrappers slipped notes with their names and addresses into the metal bottles.

Thousands of the canteens, unused in '17 and '18, are being distributed to the new army and the notes are paying off.

FRACTURED FOOT

A foot injury during football high school football practice on August 30, was found yesterday to have been a fracture to the right foot of Richard Davis, 404 Fourth avenue, when an X-ray was taken yesterday. He was treated at the Warren General Hospital and discharged.

AUTOMOBILE FIRE

The fire department was called to 311 Madison avenue at 8:24 a. m. today to extinguish a blaze in a Chevrolet sedan owned by Leo Hadley. The damage was confined to the upholstery on one door. Fire Chief Douglas C. Kropf said the cause is unknown, although it is suspected that a cigarette butt is responsible.

STRIKE IS ENDED

A two-day strike of 100 CIO unionists at the Carnation Company milk plant at Cambridge Springs ended yesterday with the granting of a five cents an hour wage increase. B. S. Zimmerman, company division manager, said milk haulers and office girls kept the plant operating until the strikers began returning to their jobs.

NAMED SUPERINTENDENT

Donald M. Rosenberger, 28, of Clearfield, president of the Northwest District of Hospital Associations of Pennsylvania, was appointed superintendent of Hamot Hospital in Erie yesterday. Rosenberger, administrator of Clearfield Hospital for more than two years, succeeds the late Col. Percy L. Jones and is the first civilian to head the large institution. Heretofore Hamot Hospital has chosen U. S. Army officers for its superintendents, but the policy was shelved on this occasion because of the national emergency.

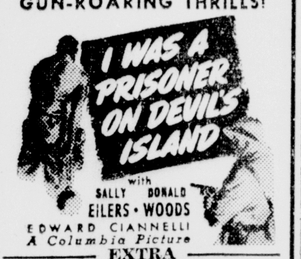

RELIEF PAYMENTS

Direct relief payments made to needy Warren countians during the weekended Thursday show a decrease of $30 from those of the previous week, according to State Treasurer G. Harold Wagner. Payments for the week totaled $193, which was $969 lower than those of the comparable week of last year. At the same time State Treasurer Wagner announced total payments of $14,614 for all types of categorical assistance, including old age assistance, aid to dependent children, and pensions for the blind, during August.

Warren Citizens' Committee Has Interesting Meeting; Plans Made

At a well-attended and enthusiastic meeting of the Citizens' committee last evening in the Geracimos private dining room, officers were elected and a lengthy discussion held regarding future plans and projects to be fostered or aided during the coming months.

Among the proposals that received considerable attention was a Community observance during the Christmas season, with the possibilities of a parade and carol singing around a tree that would be erected in the business section.

With Ben Kinnear presiding the following officers were elected: Chairman, Ed C. Lowrey, vice chairman and treasurer, H. B. Pettit; secretary, A. E. Johnson. The chairman was directed to name a project committee which will be announced later.

An executive committee of six members was named as follows: George C. Sarvis, George Geracimos, John Fenstermacher, H. D. Baker, R. W. Steber and W. I. Walker.

It was decided that a luncheon meeting will be held by the committee the third Monday in each month, and that an effort will be made to enlarge the committee by enlisting members of various service clubs and other civic organizations in the activities of the group.

LIGHTEST VOTE IN YEARS SEEN AT SHEFFIELD

Sheffield, Sept. 12.—In keeping with the election day trend over the entire state, Sheffield voters evinced little interest in the primary election Tuesday, the total vote cast here being only 374, one of the smallest totals in years.

The only contest of the election, that for the Republican nomination for judge, which was won by the organization candidate, Allison Wade, induced a total of 312 Republicans to cast a vote. The Democratic party, with nary a contest on its local and county slates, polled 62 votes.

Three persons received write-in votes on the Democratic ticket, as follows: Dr. J. E. Thompson, of Youngsville, 3 votes for County Coroner; District Attorney Joseph Goldstein, of Warren, who was unopposed for renomination on the Republican ticket, 1 vote for the same office; Harold C. T. B. SOCIETY TO MAKE PLANS AT OIL CITY MEET

"In this period of defense preparations Pennsylvania is confronted with the problem of preventing tuberculosis making a new comeback."

This statement was made today by Dr. W. W. Comfort, president of the Pennsylvania Tuberculosis Society, in announcing that the fifth of a series of sectional conferences to plan for the 35th annual Christmas Seal Sale will be held in Oil City next Wednesday at the Arlington.

"For a number of years up to 1940 there was a substantial drop in the tuberculosis death rate in Pennsylvania," continued Dr. Comfort. "Last year the decrease was very slight and during the first part of this year the deaths ran slightly ahead of the same period in 1940. This is ominous when it is remembered that during past war years tuberculosis has increased greatly even in countries not engaged in war."

The National Tuberculosis Association will be represented by Miss Frances Brophy, of the Seal Sale Service of the National Tuberculosis Association, at this conference for southeastern Pennsylvania which has been arranged by the Pennsylvania Tuberculosis Society. Its affiliated organizations in these counties are included in the conference:

Clarion, Crawford, Elk, Erie, Forest, Jefferson, McKean, Mercer, Venango, and Warren.

METHODISTS TO ATTEND SESSION AT MEADVILLE

Many Warren Methodists are planning to go to Meadville tomorrow for concluding sessions of the Erie Conference, being held at Allegheny College. Assignment of pastors for the coming year will be one of the features of the day.

Because the pastors are attending the conference sessions, Methodist churches here are omitting preaching services tomorrow.

D. Steward Patterson, of the Methodist Board of Temperance, told the conference last night "we are fast becoming the most drunken nation in the world."

"Democracy will survive if and only when religion is primary and not secondary in life," he said. "We are spiritual in theory but pagan in practice."

Referring to politics, he urged that "if the church has anything to say that means an upturn in the community, then let the church say it."

Dr. W. E. Bartlett said Methodist laymen are among the "most devoted in America, but are unconcerned about many important avenues of life."

"I am not pleading for a return to brimstone preaching although in our pleasure-loving world I am not sure but that some of it would do us good," he continued, suggesting that pastors interpret the Bible in terms of 20th century life for both individuals and society.

Dr. Bartlett reported that four superintendents in the Conference travelled 80,000 miles last year in making their calls on Conference pastorates.

The annual laymen's banquet, a feature of the annual meeting, was held at Allegheny College last night, with Edgar T. Welsh of Westfield, N. Y., chairman of the board of lay activities, in charge.

WEEKLY SERMONETTE

THE YIELDED LIFE

REV. L. W. DRURY
Pilgrim Holiness Church

Text: "Yield yourselves unto God."—Rom. 6:13.

The sixth chapter of Romans begins with a question, "Shall we continue in sin?" The answer is, "God forbid", or, in our language, "Let it not be so." We have a Christ who saves from all sin. The purpose of His coming into the world is given by the Apostle John when he said, "For this purpose was the Son of God manifested, that He might destroy the works of the Devil." No sin is too black but what God can forgive and "He is able to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by Him, seeing He ever liveth to make intercession for them." The apostle goes on to say, "How shall we who are dead to sin live any longer therein?" To die to a thing is to have nothing to do with it, or to be separated from it; and to live to a thing is to be wholly given up to it. The baptism of death spoken of in this chapter likens us to Jesus who died and was raised again by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life.

As it required the glory of the Father (His glorious energy) to raise up Christ from the dead, so it requires the same glorious energy to quicken the dead soul of the sinner and enable him to walk in newness of life. This power of God can change lives. It picked a Saul up out of formalism and made him the great Apostle Paul. It picked a Jerry McCauly from the gutters of sin and made him a mission superintendent. It picked a Jack Donovan out of the prize ring and made a preacher of righteousness of him, and, friend, this same power can change your life and mine.

Being raised in newness of life is not all; the same God who saves us from our sins can cleanse our heart from all sin and sanctify us wholly. "And the very God of peace sanctify your wholly and I pray God your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ." This is the yielded life. God wants us to put ourselves into His Almighty hand, there to be kept by the power of God unto salvation, ready to be revealed in the last day. Gracious results are obtained in yielding to God, for it is He that supplies our every need.

A yielded life, a yielded heart and a yielded mind to all the will of God will produce happy Christians, and help us attain the standard of Christianity mentioned in the grand old book, the Bible. Back to the Bible and the God of the Bible should be the heart cry of every good citizen of this fair land of ours.

A prayer:

"Yielded to Thee, Holy Spirit divine,
Henceforth Thy will shall forever be mine.
Since I surrendered completely to Thee,
Thou art abiding forever with me.

Yielded to Thee, Thou dost cleanse me from sin,
Making me pure and holy within;
Yielded to Thee, Thou doth purge me from dross,
Now with rejoicing I carry my cross.

T-H-O-U-G-H-T-S

Around New York

By GEORGE TUCKER

NEW YORK — You are looking at Dacita, of whom the public is becoming increasingly aware. Her father, a scientist, a research expert in the study of malaria on the island of Puerto Rico, wanted her to study medicine. So she obtained her bachelor's degrees from the U. of P. R. and came to America for her master's degree —but instead she met Ned Wayburn and became a dancer.

How does she get that sweeping, gliding motion into what appears to be West Indian congas and rhumbas? . . . She studied Javanese dancing. . . . "I handle the moracas with a wide sweep," she tells you between appearances at the Rainbow Room. There are tricks of oriental poise and serenity which she incorporates into her dancing. These differ from Cuban technique, but they blend beautifully.

DACITA is about 23. She is five, five. Even when she was a kid in short dresses she became interested in dancing because one of the family cooks was a bomba expert. . . . She wouldn't dance the bomba unless she was having a little nip. . . . White people aren't supposed to see the real bomba; it has a religious significance.

"She was fat but graceful," explains Dacita, "and she had the straightest back I ever saw; it was from her that I first thought of dancing and began to analyse rhumbas and congas. We also had an old servant who was 104 years old. He knew all the arias from all the operas and he used to sing them to me. He never wore shoes in his life and his teeth all were perfect. He could roast a pig better than anyone in the islands and everybody wanted to borrow him. He took three generations of our family to the opera."

AFTER Dacita decided that maybe dancing was more fun than ministering to human ills, she danced through most of the haunts of the West Indies, the Bahamas and Florida. She also became a model and at the same time studied voice. . . . "I want to get out on that floor and sing," she tells you in husky accents. . . . "Most Spanish people want either to sing or dance. . . . I want to do both."

Dacita tells me she is pure Spanish. She says her people came out to Puerto Rico several generations ago under a system that, she feels, may have contributed to the decline of Spain as a world power.

"What system was that?"

"Paid substitutes," she replied. "When rich young men were called for military service, they sent paid substitutes and then left for the islands."

She now has been in New York for three years. One of her first experiences here was on Broadway in the short-lived revue "Crazy With the Heat." . . . But 1941 seems to be the year she has been waiting for. . . . Everything this year, so far, has been good. "Look," says Dacita, "I keep my fingers crossed—both hands, same time."

King Carol of Rumania Flees to Cuba, Mexico

RUMANIA'S notorious playboy king, Carol II, falls into somewhat of a different category than his fellow-refugee monarchs. He was forced to abdicate under internal pressure, not an onrushing German army, and his ultimate destination was Mexico rather than England.

On Sept. 5, 1940, the Gigurtu cabinet resigned in Rumania and Carol appointed Ion Antonescu prime minister. Antonescu, leader of the Fascist Iron Guard, took full charge of the government. The following day Carol was forced to abdicate. His young son, Michael, became puppet king.

The 1940 stamp above, issued just before his abdication, was in commemoration of the 10th anniversary of Carol's accession to the throne. The surtax was used to increase Rumania's air force.

Accompanied by Magda Lupescu, his mistress, Carol fled to Spain, thence to Portugal, where he boarded a U. S. liner to Bermuda. He arrived in Havana, Cuba, by plane May 12, 1941. Later he moved to Mexico.

Carol renounced his right of succession to the Rumanian throne in 1925, returned in 1930 to succeed 9-year-old Michael, who had been king under a regency for three years.

YEARS AGO IN WARREN

Interesting Items Taken From the Warren Evening Times

In 1921

Much excitement has been shown over the outcome of a fracas staged annually on the high school grounds which is known as the "rush." The demonstration assumed such an alarming state that a police officer was summoned to restore order. Four young lady members of the junior class were whirled away in autos and left to walk home unaccompanied and without shoes.

Charles Clark, who has volunteered to lead the Warren Band is enthusiastic over the prospects of the organization and hopes to develop it into one of the leading musical bodies in this section of the state.

Two Ford Lizzies, one of them belonging to the Ettinger Electrical company, engaged in a mixup at Madison and South streets Tuesday with the result that the Ettinger truck lost a forward wheel.

N. A. Kidder, of North Warren, recalled today that he attended the dedication of the State Hospital for the Insane on September 10, 1874, and he states that there was a killing frost on that date 47 years ago.

The bicycle as a vehicle of conveyance is still popular. This morning fifty wheels were parked along the curb between Market and East streets on Third avenue.

In 1931

At the 57th annual convention of the Warren County W. C. T. U., at North Warren last night, the following officers were elected: President, Mrs. Mabel Dallas; vice president, Mrs. Ora Johnson; corresponding secretary, Miss Margaret Day; recording secretary, Miss Margaret Lena Jackson; treasurer, Mrs. Edith Stauffer.

For the seventh time in the history of the church, Warren again is host to the Erie annual conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, which convened in the ninety-sixth annual session at the First M. E. church, this afternoon, with Bishop Herbert Welch, of Pittsburgh, presiding.

Warren is particularly interested, and honored in a new book just published and placed in circulation today by the Warren Public Library. It is titled "The International Court" and written by the eminent court jurist of Warren county, Edward Lindsey.

Miss Elizabeth Craft is entertaining a few friends this afternoon at her Liberty street home at an informal tea.

David W. Crossett has returned to Pennsylvania Military College at Chester, accompanied by his brother, Robert, who is also entering there this year.

A WASHINGTON DAYBOOK

By JACK STINNETT

WASHINGTON—A friend who catches these paragraphs occasionally said: "I remember once you wrote about what you would do in Washington if you were a tourist. Tell me, what would you see and where would you go if you weren't a tourist?"

It took a little digging to get what he meant, but I got it. He didn't want to see the Washington Monument, the Capitol Congress in session, the Lincoln Memorial and such. He wanted to take the back roads and depend on them to give him the feel of the country—or in this case, the city—he was passing through.

It was a tough assignment After all, whoever heard of any one trying to explain how NOT to be a Washington guide? But it was fun trying and I'm going to pass along this list of things to do and places to go in Washington that tourists might miss.

FIRST, I'd turn my back on the Washington Monument and watch horse shoe pitching or the soft-ball games in the tree-shaded areas of Potomac Park. These contests are nearly always departmental and although I doubt that you'll ever find a cabinet member working up a lather on the team, you would be surprised if some one pointed out the big "execs' that sometimes are in the galleries.

Having wended down tree shaded Mount Vernon Memoria highway to the one-time home o George Washington, I would tak one look at the back door, walk out through the boxwood hedges to the left, glimpse at the little octagonal schoolroom (two pupils only) and be sure that Mount Vernon was much better than the postcards.

I'd go down to the waterfront (it's only the Potomac) and have lunch or dinner at one of the seafood "jernts"—and I would insist that the waiter or waitress tell me what's "in season" (with the specific understanding that if I don't like it, I'll send it back).

I would go to the Department of Justice building—beat my way right through to the office and conference room of the Attorney General and spend as long as I liked looking at the two murals by Leon Kroll. One of them is called "The Defeat of Justice" the other, "The Victory of Justice." In this latter, I would note that Chief Justice Harlan F. Stone is one of the principal characters and I would reflect that when this mural was painted, Mr. Stone was just another Associate Justice.

Since these murals are among the very few in Washington not on the "tourist" agenda, and almost the only ones which critics agree are practically the best, I would be positive that I had made my bow to some of the greatest of today's art—of which Washington, oddly enough (never having been considered a world art center), now is very full.

I WOULD pull all the strings I could to get into the Washington Navy Yard. It really isn't a "Navy Yard," but it's 115 acres of the Navy's best in modern "ordnance," which includes everything from minutely-ground lenses for binoculars to gigantic 16-inch guns. Besides, its the only place in the world where you can see such historic ships anchored almost bow-to-stern as the old "Hartford" and the "Potomac" — which has carried President Roosevelt from the fishing trips of peaceful days to a conference in the North Atlantic.

I'd drive (without stopping) through the hills of Arlington Cemetery; walk for hours along the old Canal that winds for more than 200 miles up the Potomac river; pedal a bicycle through the maze of Rock Creek Park; and telephone my congressman and say I didn't want anything.

Letters to the Editor

Editor Times-Mirror.
Dear Sir:

I read an account of the meeting of the Warren borough council last Monday, Sept. 8, with a great deal of interest, because I was wondering what would be said about a Councilman having a cancelled check from the borough records which he used as a heading for some political advertising. Now it would seem that in order to make a photostatic copy of a check it would have to be removed from the borough building, which removal, in my opinion, should be questioned by the Burgess, President of Council, or at least some Councilman.

No citizen would be allowed to remove any of the borough records, especially when they might be used for political propaganda, and I believe a Councilman, when he is a lawyer, should and does know better.

Taxpayer.

ODD LAW

In Salina, Kan., automobiles are illegal on West Place street, according to old city records which show that only horse-drawn vehicles may use the street legally.

ICE FACTS

Glass may be as smooth as ice, but you can't skate on it because it is not the smoothness of the ice that makes it slippery. It is the film of water that forms between your skate and the ice, due to pressure.

Answers To Cranium Crackers

1. Tennis, most likely, with Wilbur chasing the tennis ball down the alley. Other possibilities: bowling, although running down the alley is quite unorthodox; and sandlot baseball, chasing a long hit.
2. Tennis, again, with romance on the moonlit tennis court. Or basketball, perhaps, if the gym was deserted.
3. Chester, it appear, was about to start his fifth hole in a golf game.
4. Jack Horner was a prize fighter this time, but not a very good one.
5. Baseball. There's a stretch in horse racing, but no flies, unless they're horseflies. The baseball stretch is in the seventh inning.

Rebekah Lodges Entertain Assembly Officers At Banquet and Sessions; Degree Is Conferred

Rebekah Lodges of the eastern and western district were hostesses here yesterday for a fine meeting of nearby lodges in entertainment of Pennsylvania Rebekah officers headed by Lillian North, president, of Mount Pleasant.

Other grand officers here for the afternoon and evening sessions and banquet at the Y. W. C. A. activities building at six o'clock last evening, were the warden, Anne Updegraff, of Sharpsburg; the secretary, Bessie Stone, of Philadelphia; the treasurer, Elva Morrow, of Pittsburgh; conductor, Laura Nichols, of East Smithfield, and the chaplain, Miriam Hurd, of Port Allegany.

There were 72 present for the afternoon session, opened by Martha Sanden, noble grand, representing lodges of Warren, Youngsville, Tidioute, Bear Lake, Russell, Lottsville and Sugar Grove. The district deputy president, Ruelena Yaeger, extended the welcome to which Mrs. North responded, after which various phases of the lodge work were exemplified, a round table was conducted and the unwritten work was given by five members.

Maude Bright, of Lady Warren Rebekah Lodge, was awarded a certificate of perfection in the work, the first member to be so honored under the present administration.

Recess was then taken to go to the banquet, where tables were prettily decorated in flowers and favors to carry out the lodge colors of pink and green.

The group returned to the lodge rooms for the conferring of the past grand's degree by assembly officers. The 26 past noble grands taking this work included the following from Warren: Ruelena Yaeger, Doris Bassett, Sue Reynolds, Hildur Swanson, Rose Lauffenburger, Clara Baker and Agnes Duncan.

Mrs. Sanden opened regular lodge session and Mrs. Yaeger escorted the assembly officers and the district deputy president of the eastern district, Frances McAllister, of Youngsville. The Warren degree team put on the work for initiation of six candidates, including Ruth Reiff, Mabel Rapp and Cleo Adolphson, of Warren. Others were from Bear Lake and Russell. There were about 125 present for this evening session, including visitors from Lakewood and Jamestown, N. Y.

Another feature of the evening was presentation by Mrs. Yaeger of attractive gifts to the visiting assembly officers.

After lodge was closed, the social committee served refreshments in the dining room.

Union Leaders Plan Action in Miners' Revolt

adamant in their demands that the UMW rescind orders raising dues and assessments from a total of $14 to $24 a year, Miller declaring "these increases are only a wedge to open the door to unlimited assessments." Approved by the union's general membership in a national referendum, the increases are collected through the check-off system. Diggers in this area voted against the boost.

UMWA President John L. Lewis' regional leaders ordered the insurgents back to their jobs, declaring the work stoppage unauthorized, but Lewis himself declined comment. His Washington office sent a representative here for a conference with regional officers, while the insurgent heads also scheduled a meeting to map their next move.

The walkout started early this week in the union's district seven, which embraces Hazleton and Panther Creek Valley areas, where Miller said 20,000 were idle.

The House was expected to consider the compromise revenue bill Monday, and leaders hoped they could rush it through that chamber in time for final Senate approval before nightfall.

Winners of the hunt were the following members of the Eagle Patrol: Forrest Bainbridge, patrol leader; James Richards, assistant; Corwin Skillman, Bill Blair, Alan Babcock, Henry Blick, Charles Joy and Alan Schuler. These winners received the patrol hi-spot of the evening.

After the hunt, refreshments were served by Assistant Scoutmaster Marshal Johnsen and Junior assistant Royce Black. A meeting of the troop committee followed, at which time plans for the year were discussed.

Among those present were Elton Davis, commissioner; E. T. Judd, chairman of troop committee; I. A. Reed and C. A. Babcock, committeemen; C. Ray Lewis, Scoutmaster, and Dick Ruhlman, senior patrol leader.

SEEK SETTLEMENT OF WALKOUT AT BEAVER

Pittsburgh, Sept. 13—(AP)—Aiming to speed settlement of their strike at the $5,000,000 partially completed propeller plant of the Curtiss-Wright Corporation in Beaver, AFL union leaders today sought to have the dispute transferred from the National Defense Mediation Board to the recently-created OPM board of review.

After conferences with state and federal labor conciliators, James Ahearn of the AFL Pittsburgh Building Trades Council said the unions believed the board of review "could act" decisively and much more quickly than the Defense Mediation Board."

Tokyo Meeting Told Japan is Ready to Fight

Should Japan decide to send her navy and air force—which he said included 500 ships and 4,000 planes—into the south Pacific, Britain and the United States would be powerless to protect the sea routes to Manila, Singapore and Australia, Nakano asserted.

It would be "nonsensical for the United States to start a war against Japan" in such circumstances, he added.

Ceiling On Hard Coal Assailed

The companies' spokesman declared Henderson's order in effect was issued at a disadvantageous point in the established series of price setups between April and September. The producers, he said, have for 40 years followed a policy of reducing prices in the spring and of restoring them gradually through the summer.

Merritt argued that figures submitted to OPA showed the proposed increase would make anthracite only eight per cent more than the mine price of the same time in 1940 "notwithstanding an increase of 12 per cent in wages (granted in May and including vacation payments) and a mounting increase in material costs." The spokesman added "no reasonable person will say that x x x is profiteering."

Henderson, declaring producers failed to show the proposed increase justified, yesterday froze prices at the mines at $6.60 for principal domestic sizes of broken egg, stove and chestnut, $5.40 for pea coal, $3.75 for buckwheat No. 1, $2.90 for rice and $2.45 for barley. Philadelphia retailers, reporting increased distribution costs, said they also would have to advance prices if they go up at the mines.

In reply to Henderson's announcement that the industry would be given opportunity to submit additional information in support of the contemplated price increase, Merritt said that the fullest particulars had been submitted.

Companies the spokesman said he represented are the Glen Alden, Hudson, Jeddo-Highland, Lehigh Navigation, Lehigh Valley Pennsylvania, Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron and Susquehanna collieries.

Gasoline Scare Baseless Sen. Walsh Declares

Davies has refused to accept the railroad's estimates and has urged that the pipeline be built.

Meanwhile Senator Walsh (D-Mass.) wrote Davies that he had information that the eastern gasoline scare "was baseless and that the curtailment and rationing orders were unjustified."

Supplies of motor fuel for retailers have been reduced 10 per cent below the July level, and filling stations in 17 states and the District of Columbia have been closing from 7 p. m. to 7 a. m. nightly.

Walsh declared that 80 tankers carrying petroleum products arrived in Boston harbor during August compared with 64 in the same month last year and noted that tankers now are allowed to carry heavier loads. Walsh said he feared that small, independent units of the oil industry were being injured by the filling station curfew and asked Davis to comment.

STOCK MARKET KEEPS BALANCE ON SPECULATIVE TRAPEZE DURING DAY

New York, Sept. 13—(AP)—The stock market kept its balance on the speculative trapeze today without a great deal of effort.

While many leaders moped throughout the brief proceedings and minor declines were fairly well distributed, there were a few relatively strong spots and fractional advances were plentiful at the close.

The ticker tape was a sluggish performer from the start and transfers for the two hours were around 200,000 shares.

Rails did moderately well in an otherwise irregular bond department. Commodities exhibited further rising inclinations for a while but a drop in grains eventually unsettled the staples section.

J. I. Case was an isolated sprinter in the share division, again going into new high ground for the year, Deere, Oliver Farm and Caterpillar Tractor also attracted bids. The revival of implement shares was attributed partly to the belief the recent sharp upswing in agricultural products, combined with the scarcity of labor due to defense requirements, would expand demand for machinery in rural districts.

Carriers were aided by a number of good earnings reports and the belief freight traffic would begin to climb in coming weeks. Rail issues up at intervals were Chesapeake and Ohio, Atlantic Coast Line, Pennsylvania and N. Y. Central.

Douglas Aircraft and Boeing tacked on gains and support was accorded Sears Roebuck, General Motors, Western Union, Westinghouse, General Electric, Goodrich and North American. Steels were at a standstill. Laggards included Montgomery Ward, Chrysler, du Pont, Phelps Dodge and U. S. Rubber.

CHICAGO GRAIN

Chicago, Sept. 13.—(AP)—Profit taking continued to plague the grain market today and prices of wheat and corn sagged fractionally although oats and rye were steady at the opening.

Starting ¼-½ lower, December $1.22⅝-¾, May $1.27¼-1.27, wheat later held near this range. Corn started unchanged to ⅜ off, December 84½, May 89⅞-90.

THIS IS F. B. E. and T. E.!

BABY IS KING

A rose-curtained cradle, where nestled within
Soft cambric and flannel, lies pounds seventeen,
Is the throne of a tyrant, that pink little thing
Is an autocrat ruler, for baby is king.
Good, solemn grandfather dares hardly speak
Or walk, lest the sleeper should hear his boots creak
Grandma is a martyr in muslins and cap
Which the monarch unsettles, as well as her nap.
Papa wise and mighty, just home from "the house"
Grows meek at the threshold and moves like a mouse.
To stare at the bundle, then outward he goes.
Good aunties and cousins before him bow low
Though he rumples the ringlets, twists collars and bow,
He bids the nurse walk with his majesty's self.
And he cries when she stops, like a merciless elf.
He winks right and left his saucy, fat fist
And then the next moment expects to be kissed.
He demands people's watches to batter about,
Then failing to conquer, with passionate cry,
He quivers his lips, keeps a tear in his eye;
And so wins the battle, the wise little thing
He knows, the world over, that baby is king!

VOTE PLAN AND RULES

The Favorite Baby Election is restricted to Community babies who have not reached their sixth birthday today, which is the opening date of the Baby Election and Trade Expansion. Children of the cooperating merchants or their employees, and of the employees of this newspaper's business office, are not eligible to compete. (This rule does not apply to our correspondents.)

The business concerns cooperating with this newspaper in the Favorite Baby Election will give vote coupons upon each fifty-cent cash purchase upon request at the time the purchase is made or upon payment of account. Votes will be given upon the Entry Blank and free voting coupons that appear in this newspaper and upon payment of subscriptions to this newspaper. (See printed votes schedule). Votes are not transferable from one baby to another baby and in the event an entrant is withdrawn from the Election, the votes cast for it will be cancelled. In the event a tie occurs prizes of equal value will be given the babies polling the tie votes. Votes positively cannot be purchased; any collusion to nullify competition to the detriment of this newspaper, the cooperating merchants and other candidates subject these entrants to disqualification. Cash must accompany all subscriptions where votes are credited. New, renewal and arrearage subscriptions on this newspaper are entitled to the schedule of votes, according to the size of the subscription.

An additional payment upon a subscription turned in previously during the Election will be recognized for votes upon the period the original payment was made. Right is reserved to reject any entrant without giving the reason therefore. Right is reserved to add to the list of awards or to give extra prizes. A committee of representative citizens will make the awards at the conclusion of the Election. All awards are final and all persons participating (parents and nominators) agree to abide by the Awarding Committee's finding. "Second payment" subscriptions must be plainly designated as such according to instructions in order to obtain proper credit for votes. All matter pertaining to the Election elsewhere in this issue is hereby made part of the rules and conditions governing it. This newspaper reserves the right to correct infringes or typographical errors that may occur or to make any additions to these rules that may be deemed necessary to the welfare of the participants, the merchants and this newspaper.

COMMUNITY STORES:

are asked to consider this a special invitation from the Warren Times-Mirror to participate in the Favorite Baby Election. The plan of issuing Baby Votes is very simple . . . a coupon being given your customer with each 50c cash purchase or payment on account. Coupons cost a merchant but one-half cent each. There is no other charge of any kind to a merchant. Babies from every town within the trading territory of Warren will be entered and it is believed merchants from all points will find this plan both interesting and profitable.

WHERE TO GET BABY VOTES

From today look for the signs, printed in red and black, appearing on the windows and in stores and offices of leading community merchants and business men. With each 50c cash purchase or payment on account you will receive a coupon at these business establishments—each coupon entitles any baby you select to votes—thus these progressive firms cooperate in helping the people elect a King and Queen of Babyland by popular vote. Always ask for Baby Votes when you make a purchase—merchants want you to have them, but ask for at the time the purchase is made. The Baby Selection starts now and ends Saturday, November 22, 1941.

Substitutes: Homewood—Moran, White, Pioth, Laffey, Pearlstein, Borosso, Keenan, Kalinowski, Ruefle, Grose, Kubrick. Red Jackets—DeSantis, Ernie Sedon, Giancotti, Martines, Blossey, Fredericks, Traub, Dahlgren, Murphy, Graham, Guichard.

With good weather in the offing a crowd of 2,000 grid fans or better is expected to come from this section of the state and southwestern New York tomorrow afternoon to see the initial encounter of the Warren Red Jackets against the Homewood C. C., strong Pittsburgh aggregation, the kickoff slated for 2:30 o'clock (DST), on Russell Field.

A team that has become one of the most respected outfits on gridirons in and around Pittsburgh, the revamped lineup of the Homewood club is ready to hand the Jackets a real fight in the fracas, and are confident that they will return home with a triumph.

Homewood played here last year against one of the finest Red and Yellow teams this community has ever produced and lost a 21-7 decision after playing a great game throughout the first half. Reserve power on the part of the locals was mainly responsible for last year's shellacking, but the same mistake won't be made again by the invaders.

On the other side, the local crew under the guidance this year of the clever "Doc" Reese and his capable assistant, Bill Paris, looks to be ready to dish out quite a game of the grid sport itself, and with a line that averages better than 205 pounds per man, plus a speedy backfield which includes three pony backs and a 245 pound fullback, the Jackets should be able to go places and do things.

Tomorrow afternoon's game will be an experiment for the new Jacket organization. Russell Field will be the laboratory and the Homewood team will be the test which the Jackets must undergo. On whether or not they pass successfully will rest their chances for going through an exceptionally fine season or possibly hitting it off at just a normal clip.

Reese and Paris, highly satisfied with the progress made by the squad, are sure their proteges will come through with flying colors, chalk up their first victory in what they hope will be a long string, and give local and sectional followers a brand of football such as they have enjoyed for the past ten years.

The team as a whole is eager to get into the game tomorrow and will go after a quick lead which will give them the advantage over their opponents. With a strong aerial attack and plenty of smart running for a good ground offensive, the locals should have little trouple in making substantial gains, but the question lies in their defense, and how much yardage will be added up on the Homewood ledger.

Season tickets will be honored and though the attraction will be in the form of a booster game, popular prices will prevail, unlike other years when the initial tilt, always being a booster event, saw the prices pushed up a bit.

DECISION IN A SWING

Hollywood, Sept. 13—(AP)—Verne Bybee, San Francisco boxer, lost his bout because he swung too hard.

Ahead on points, Bybee put everything he had into a right smash to the jaw of Toby Vigil, Los Angeles Mexican, in the fourth round of their scheduled 10-roumder last night.

The blow was too much for Bybee. He slumped to the canvas with a dislocated shoulder. Referee Benny Witman halted the match at two minutes and 32 seconds and awarded Vigil a technical knockout.

Each weighed 133.

SPORT SPATTERINGS

EVERYTHING SET FOR RED JACKETS TO PRY LID OFF NEW CAMPAIGN; ALLEGHENY COLLEGE PREPARING FOR HARD SEASON

With the team in good shape, the season ticket sale having gone over the top so well that a good sized crowd will finally be found within the reserved seat sections at Red Jacket games this fall starting Sunday, and the weatherman so far hinting that the sun will shine, everything seems ready for a successful start for the local semi-pros in their first lap in the race during the new campaign for tri-state grid honors. Every opponent that approaches the city line from Pittsburgh or other points in Pennsylvania this fall will be gunning for the locals because of the fact that they presently are western Pennsylvania semi-pro champions, and therefore remain the team to beat this year. Homewood gets the first shot tomorrow and, with a rejuvenated club, may surprise the Jackets and their followers. With many of their better players from last year back, and exceptionally fine new material strengthening the squad, the invaders may cut the odds on themselves entering the game as underdogs before game time. It has been learned by this bureau that the capable "Piney" Johnson, Jamestown football official, will be available again this season, though for a time it was indefinite, and he will be the first man in that department on Sunday. Wilbur from Titusville will serve as umpire, and Gerry Peterson, young local official, will work the game in the capacity of head linesman. With interest steaming after a dull summer of sports in this community, this corner predicts the crowd will soar ot record heights as the first fine outdoor treat is offered Warren this year in the way of professional sports.

Under youthful Coach Al Werner, 24-year-old mentor who has just taken over the reins in the football department at Allegheny College, the 'Gators are expected to gain vengeance for their past two winless seasons in the coming campaign and, with a squad of hustling veterans, reinforced with some favorable undergraduate material, Werner may experience a far better year than has been seen in quite some time down at Meadville. And among the lettermen returning who will make up the brunt of the starting lineup as intentions are now are: Warren's Bill Chapman, who gave local fans some fine scholastic ball under Leidig; Ralph Marasco, a senior at Allegheny who hails from Kane and was the standout player on last year's team; Dick Roeder and Paul Krantz from Bradford, and Frank McKnight of Franklin. These boys are already going through the drills and another valuable letterman, Wally Hansen, of Ludlow, will join them soon. Chapman shaped into an outstanding end on last year's squad after playing center at Warren High. With ten lettermen returning and the new and versatile methods of Werner, the 'Gators may go places, though their schedule is no soft touch. They open October 4 with Haverford in a warm-up, have an open date the following week, then plunge into a heavy season against Grove City, American University, University of Rochester, Thiel and Kenyon College—short, but not too sweet!

Quickies . . . The manager of the local Western Union office, C. S. Burtnette, visited this sanctum yesterday afternoon and presented the editorial staff with some very complete football schedules of all the major college teams in the nation . . . Bill Lundahl and Gail Templeton, ex-high school cagers, are heading for Grove City this fall and are even bets to show their wares before they win a sheepskin . . . And just to remind you again, though Zerbe won't be able to play with the Jackets this year, don't forget him as being the co-promoter with Frank Sirianni last year for puttng the Red Jackets on the field when all hope had nearly been abandoned . . . Those two boys did that because they love the sport, and you can thank them that the local semi-pros haven't broken up . . . So, bouquets to you, pals . . . Not too soon to mention it in this burgh, but baseball fans might start planning now to get a committee or organization of some kind together following the football season to make plans for repairing the local ball diamond—if Sunset League and Sunday baseball are desired next summer . . . A certain press clipping from down the line from one who should know better stated this week that the Warren High gridders never were able to use any reserves last Saturday until the final quarter against Youngsville because of the latter's aggressiveness . . . The youthful scribe who wrote thus played in the game, and we'll remind him that the reserves rolled in and over him from the first quarter on . . . No less than twenty-three players seeing action.

EAST-WEST GO IN FINALS OF WOMEN'S GOLF

BY BILL KING

Brookline, Mass., Sept. 13—(AP)—California's chances of providing women's sport with another attractive poker-faced champion appeared bright taoday with its Mrs. Betty Hicks Newell engaging Helen Sigel of Philadelphia, in the 36-hole Women's National Amateur Golf title match at the Country Club.

During her march to the finals, the 20-year-old Betty has displayed the same grim determination that Helen Wills Moody did while she was reigning over the tennis courts.

Yesterday, when the breaks of the game were running against her as she opposed Mrs. Estelle Lawson Page of Greensboro, N. C., the 1937 champion, Mrs. Newell accepted each one in stoical fashion. She was equally impassive when, with her best-played putt of the round, a 15-footer, she squared the match at the 18th hole and then defeated the southern star with a birdie four on the 19th.

The much more spontaneous Miss Sigel won her place in the final bracket by defeating another southerner, Mrs. Frank Goldthwaite of Fort Worth, Tex., 3 and 2.

Miss Sigel, who had been forced to serve as a runner-up before she gained most of the sectional titles she has held, played the best golf of the semi-final round, thanks to a series of fortunate incidents.

One of them was hitting a spectator with her second shot as it was traveling towards a menacing clump of bushes on the ninth hole. The ball was deflected to the edge of the green, from where she chipped almost dead for a winning four that gave her a one-over 38 outward nine and a two-hole lead starting back.

Miss Sigel enabled the tourney to have its first east-west final since 1935, when another Philadelphian, Mrs. Glenna Collett Vare, gained her sixth national title by defeating Patty Berg of Minneapolis.

Eagles, Giants Battle Tonight

Philadelphia, Sept. 13—(AP)—Promising a razzle-dazzle kind of football, the unpredictable new Philadelphia Tagles get their baptism of fire tonight at the hands of the powerful New York Giants in their National Pro League opener.

Under new ownership of young Alexis Thompson, the Eagles have two of the league's most dangerous passing threats in Lew Barnum, former Giant, and Tommy Thompson, ex-Steeler, both flinging from the quarterback slot under the center in the spectacular "T" attack developed by Coach Alfred Earle (Greasy) Neale.

One of football's most wily tacticians, Neale for six weeks has drilled his charges on a fast-breaking wide open offensive. Not worried about the ability of his charges to score and score often, he spent the last few days in developing a defense against the powerful Giant ground attack and aerial threat. Already the outfit has won recognition for play against Green Bay's Packers who won 28-21.

Frank Reagan, former Penn State triple threat now with the Giants, won't be in the starting lineup but will receive early attention by being notified in pregame ceremonies of the time of his induction into the marine corps. The Eagles' 110-piece crimson-coated band will march on the field to start festivities 20 minutes before the kickoff at 8:30 p. m. EST.

Gas House Gang Can Take Lead With Win In Today's Struggle

By JUDSON BAILEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

The sensation-saturated series between the Brooklyn Dodgers and the St. Louis Cardinals, even before it strikes its highest pitch today, has shattered every possibility of deciding the National League race until the final days of the season.

The two teams are evenly-matched. Neither is great, but both are dead game and capable of carrying their neck-and-neck fight right down to the finish line two weeks from tomorrow.

In fact, the prospect of a tie is so plausible tahat President Ford Frick called a meeting with the two club presidents for today to map plans for a post-season playoff, just to be prepared.

Whatever chance there was for an early settlement was wrapped up in the Dodgers, who attained a two-game lead by capturing the opening tussle Thursday, 6-4, in 11 innings. But the feat of the Cardinals in crashing back to a 4-3 triumph yesterday quickly ended this sort of speculation.

The standings now:

Brooklyn	89	50	.640
St. Louis	87	50	.635

By winning today's grand finale the Cardinals could take over first place by two percentage points. Yet no matter which team takes this crucial contest, the day for clinching the pennant is a long way off.

If the Dodgers win today and keep right on winning every game they play, while the Cardinals lose every encounter from today on, Brooklyn still could not clinch the championship until next Saturday.

If the Cards were to start today and win all their encounters and the Dodgers lose every contest, St. Louis would have to go till a week from tomorrow to get the clincher.

The Cardinals' victory yesterday was accomplished with great gusto by the two oldest codgers on the team, Gus Mancuso, 35, and Estel Grabtree, 37. Mancuso tripled in the second to drive in one run and then scored himself. After two errors by Don Padgett had helped Brooklyn take the lead with three runs in the fifth, Crabtree duplicated Mancuso's performance with a three-bagger for two runs in the sixth.

While this was going on, the New York Yankees, already installed as the American League champs, learned that Charley Keller had chipped a bone in his ankle and probably would be lost for the world series. His absence did not prevent them from blasting the Detroit Tigers, 8-2.

The Boston Red Sox shut out the St. Louis Browns, 5 to 0, on Joe Dobson's five-hit hurling, and Johnny Humphries allowed only four as the Chicago White Sox whipped the Philadelphia Athletics, 2-0. Washington downed Cleveland, 7-4.

In the other National League engagements the Phillies stopped the Chicago Cubs, 5-3; Elmer Riddle pitched and batted the Cincinnati Reds to an 8-4 triumph over the New York Giants, and the Boston Braves divided another doubleheader at Pittsburgh, winning 5-0 after the Pirates took the opener, 6-3.

Schools Adjust Grid Schedules

Sunbury, Pa., Sept. 13—(AP)—Representatives of the Big 15 inter-scholastic football conference—hard hit by the infantile paralysis outbreak which has postponed practice scheduleh and early games—came here today to review their problems.

The members, said Secretary John W. Weimer of York, will "discuss the advisability of attempting any adjustment of schedules as well as to consider any equality concerning the training period for all teams in the conference."

He pointed out that at least nine of the 15 conference schools have been prevented from holding fall practice because of the disease spread.

It was also considered likely the school representatives would discuss appointing a commissioner to name officials for the games. Ray Hill, Philadelphia, commissioner of the Middle Atlantic Inter-Collegiate Football Association, who was to have outlined the procedure, will not appear, officials said, because of a conflicting engagement.

Another matter of business will be the selection of future meeting places.

Sports Round-up

By HUGH S. FULLERTON Jr.

New York, Sept. 13.—(—The Special News Service) — Well, "our bums" (spoken with affection) have become "dem bums" again and today probably will decide which will be permanent . . . Ford Frick must have collected a few tips from a good fight referee on how to go about that speech he made to the managers and the umps before the game . . . The crowds don't make it look as if St. Louis fans were getting very excited about it all, but maybe they're just saving up their dough to buy world series tickets . . . With Keller and Rolfe out, the Yanks won't have such a breeze against the National Leaguers as their supporters had been expecting . . . If the Cards win the pennant, maybe they'll decide to call the whole thing off and let the Medicos play the series . . . The Yanks' list includes Joe DiMaggio (sore wrist), Red Ruffing (stiff neck) Bill Dickey (bruised instep) and Buddy Rosar (dizzy spells) . . . The Cards don't expect to have Ennos slaughter or Terry Moore back . . . While the National leaguers were announcing they'd hold a meeting to decide about a playoff in case of a tie, the Yanks were announcing that all the world series box seats had been sold . . . That's the difference between the leagues.

FOR THE LOVE OF PAM

By VIVIEN GREY

YESTERDAY: It began when his Kerry Blue terrier nuzzled Pam Quellerton on the Key West beach. Jerry knew when Pam looked inquiringly up at him that something had happened that wouldn't be forgotten soon. He has taken her to a dance, and has kissed her good night, and Pam has suddenly realized that she has broken her rule against going about with "winter men." And Jerry wonders what about Freda Barington, who wears his ring—

Chapter Five

No Release

FREDA BARINGTON had always done her swimming and her beach lazing in front of Casa Marina in the colorful atmosphere of its smart beach umbrellas and smarter patrons.

But with slacks and jacket over a bathing suit that fit her supple body with unwrinkled perfection, she walked along South Street to South Beach. She seemed to wander aimlessly along the beach, but actually she was intent on a very definite purpose. Her eyes scanned the beach. They focussed on a solitary figure. She walked with apparent casualness toward that figure sitting alone on the sand and staring out over the variegated water of the ocean.

"Would it be madness to offer you a penny for your thoughts?" she asked as she dropped down on the sand. She removed the jacket and proceeded to roll the slacks up above her knees. She turned to Jerry then.

"Well?" she asked.

"You'd lose the penny," Jerry turned a serious face to her.

"I see. Then you want to talk."

"I don't know. The fact is, Freda, I don't know what I do want or that I want anything except one thing."

"That bad?"

"Worse. And I suppose you think I'm crazy."

Freda's fingers sifted sand for a moment, and then she turned a serious and pretty face toward Jerry.

"No, I don't, Jerry. I don't blame you at all. I understand. She's lovely, really lovely. If I could find anything here as gorgeous as that I'd go on an emotional spree myself for a while."

Faint color rose under the tan of her skin. "Perhaps I should blush at admitting being so utterly human, Jerry. Perhaps it's worse than human. Perhaps wanton. Maybe it's the wanton in us. Or maybe we're just bored with things as they are? Or is it the tropical atmosphere? Anyhow, exactly what you feel for the little Conch girl, I suppose I could feel for a Conch man if I could find one as nice. It's"—she sought the right words—"like the swell of the tide out there—as natural, as impossible to quell. And just as unpredictable."

She had gone on talking, too engrossed in her own thoughts to notice that Jerry had winced, that he'd seemed to drawn into himself. When he spoke it was in a changed voice.

"But you don't understand after all, Freda," he said. "It isn't that sort of thing at all with me. Emotional spree stuff, I mean. It's real. Real enough to last all my life."

"I know," she said easily, watching a bronzed local youth walk past. "Chalk that up to the atmosphere, darling. That strangely insistent breeze that keeps flaying at you, whipping up something inside you that you can't understand yourself. A sameness about the days that makes you want to do something different, just to mark one from the other. Sometimes," she finished on a note of low laughter, "I think what we need is work."

No Flirtation

JERRY looked at her casually. "Sometimes that gadget you use for a brain does produce a thought," he said. "And, by the way, stop flirting with the local boy."

"All right, darling, I'm flirting with a local boy. So what? You are flirting with a local girl."

"It happens, Freda, I'm not flirting."

"Call it anything you want to, darling. Your romance with your island flower can't get very far as long as I wear your ring!"

She was laughing at him, but Jerry paid little attention. Something else held him.

"Island flower!" he said. "Freda, that's exactly what she is! It expresses her perfectly."

"Or Conch girl!" she exclaimed in gentle irony. "Watch your step, Jerry, or you'll have conch shells growing out of your shoulders."

"That isn't nice, Freda. And your present mood is not in the least becoming. But I could have lots worse things than conch shells fasten to me."

"All right. I'll stop. Indulge your mood for your little local girl. You'll forget her as soon as you leave the island, or sooner. I'll forgive you. I haven't a jealous hair on my head."

"Freda, don't!" There was something in his voice that brought her sharply facing him.

"Don't what?"

"Talk like that. You're trying to soil something that's too lovely to be soiled."

"Go on, darling, rave away." Freda had turned to watch the youth who'd sat down now on an overturned boat. "I'm broad-minded. At least, I can be while I'm here. As I said before, I'm wearing your ring, and you can't laugh that off very easily."

"It happens I'm not flirting," said Jerry.

Tied!

JERRY turned away. He didn't want to watch Freda's flirtation, meaningless as it might be. The youth who had been sitting on the overturned boat got up slowly and went to Duval Street to sit there on the stone wall enclosing the lawns of the southernmost house in the United States, its cupola rising above a cocoanut palm plantation to look across the southern sea. The young man sat gazing back toward Freda.

Jerry looked at Freda. She was turned away from him, looking toward Duval Street. He caught just an angle of her profile. She was an arresting figure, he admitted. He felt sorry for the young man and a little ashamed for Freda.

Of course that's what Freda thought of his friendship with Pam. That it was just a beach flirtation. That was not flattering to Pam. And he, Jerry, was the cause of it. The knowledge stung him to the quick.

Suddenly Freda seemed to realize Jerry had been silent quite a long time and with a strange, withdrawn tenseness.

"Jerry, what's wrong? What have I said?"

"Probably nothing. Perhaps I'm wrong. But if I am, I can't help it."

"What are you trying to say?" There was a sharp note in her voice.

"Just that you've got me all wrong about Pam, Freda. She's the first thing my life has touched that I've felt was real and permanent, and something I needed."

"Jerry, what do you mean?"

"Just what I've said, Freda."

The girl stared at him for a moment. "And where does that let me off?" she asked in a low tone.

Jerry turned quickly to her. "Do you mind, Freda?" he asked.

"If I thought you meant what you've been saying, I think I would mind."

"But I do mean it."

"Jerry, you can't! You can't! Think what your mother would say. And Lenore."

Jerry stared out to sea. He'd heard very little of what Freda had said. He was wondering what Pam was doing at that moment.

"No, Jerry," Freda said quietly but with decision, "I can't give you up."

Battle of Atlantic Increases

Virginio Gayda, Italian Fascist editorial spokesman, said Italy and Germany would adjust their war plans to meet what he called a "de facto declaration of war."

Of the gigantic war against Russia, the Germans hadn't much to say today. They reported Leningrad and Odessa were under heavy air attacks.

The Russians, however, admitted loss of Chernigov, which sharpened the menace to Kiev, and said they had repulsed a heavy German drive toward Bryansk, midway point on the Kiev-Moscow railroad where the steppes begin.

British bombers struck at western Germany during the night and RAF fighters roared across the English channel shortly after dawn, apparently to strike again at Nazi positions on the French coast. Berlin acknowledged civilian casualties and apartment house damage in southwestern Germany, but no military damage. One British bomber was reported shot down.

Two Nazi night raiders were shot down over Britain, a British communique said.

President Roosevelt's orders to the United States Navy to shoot first against German and Italian raiders in American defense waters drew sharp comment in the controlled German press, which published extracts from his speech for the first time.

Diplomatic situations drew attention also in three nations of South and Central America.

Chilean police detained 22 Germans for questioning in an investigation of activities considered officially to be harmful to domestic security.

The Mexican government, expressing belief that a "war of continents" is imminent, proposed immediate formation by western hemisphere nations of a joint defense plan.

In Buenos Aires, German Ambassador Edmund Von Thermann protested to the Argentine foreign office against "calumnies" which he declared were voiced during House debate on a resolution accusing him of "overstepping the bounds of a diplomat and abusing his privileges." The deputies will vote on the resolution Monday.

three infantry divisions behind the 49th Tank Corps for the assault in the Bryansk sector, then added another tank corps, considerable air forces and nine more infantry divisions.

But, according to these dispatches, the Germans were thrown back from the approaches to the city to their original positions.

Nazi forces were reported to have been pushed back westward from the Desna river by the defenders of the Bryansk sector in a violent battle of the steppes at the approaches to Trubchevsk, 62 miles southeast of Bryansk.

In the same general zone, however, was the Red Army withdrawal from Chernigov.

Berlin, Sept. 13—(AP)—U-boats, still slashing at a Britain-bound convoy in the north Atlantic after President Roosevelt's shoot-on-sight orders to the U. S. navy, have sunk four more merchantmen and three escort vessels, the German High Command declared today.

The new bulletin raised the toll claimed from the convoy to 28 merchantmen totalling 164,000 tons,—31 ships altogether including the three war vessels. Two merchantmen totalling 11,000 tons reported yesterday as probably sunk, were included in this newer, unqualified claim.

First announcing the assault on the convoy in a special communique yesterday, the High Command said it included 40 ships heavily escorted by corvettes and destroyers.

Unlike the original announcement, which said the chase of scattered ships of the convoy was continuing, the communique today merely reported:

"In renewed attacks against the enemy convoy mentioned in yesterday's communique, submarines sank an additional four merchantmen totalling 19,000 tons as well as three convoying vessels.

"Thus, the enemy lost 28 merchantment totaling 164,000 tons from this convoy."

Germany's raised claim of the toll in the raid on Britain's commerce, which started several days before President Roosevelt spoke, followed official denunciation of his broadcast.

The president's speech, authoritative sources declared, "made no difference in purely formal diplomatic relations between Germany and the United States."

Asked whether the speech would receive an official answer, one informant countered: "We have not been asked for one." Later, however, he added that nothing could be said now on that point.

Reflecting the general attitude of Germany's controlled press, the Hamburger Fremdenblatt said President Roosevelt had "fired the starting gun in undeclared sea warfare" by issuing "shoot first" orders to the U. S. navy.

Plans For 15-Minute Blackout Monday Evening Are Completed

provided by him late each afternoon during next week. The sound truck will be contributed and operated by Norman Scholton, of the Warren Amusement Company.

Citizens who expect to drive to the business section to enjoy the music of the V. F. W. Band immediately after the blackout should be parked before nine o'clock and should not move their cars during the period of darkness, it was stated. Those who may be driving when the street lights are turned off should draw to the curb and turn out car lights.

During the period of the blackout, planes from the Warren Airport, led by Manager V. S. "Slip" King, will fly over the borough, simulating a bombing attack.

In addition to the flight Monday night, there will be formation flying by ships from the local airport on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings at six o'clock.

The blackout, according to H. B. Pettit, chairman of the committee, is being made possible through the wholehearted cooperation of the burgess, chiefs of the fire and police departments, the local barracks of the state motor police and the Pennsylvania Electric Company.

"It is being sponsored," he said, "to impress on the citizens of Warren the fact that our country is in a state of emergency, when the aid of every man and woman is needed in every patriotic project. The present project is the purchase of Defense Saving Stamps by everyone in the largest possible amount. The retailers, at the request of the U. S. Treasury Department, are making the stamps available in their stores for the convenience of their customers. It will help boost the total sales in Warren if every shopper will take part of his change in stamps each time he makes a purchase during the week."

It is announced that if the weather is not suitable Monday evening, the scheduled concert by the V. F. W. Band will be postponed to the first suitable evening thereafter. If it occurs Monday evening, it will be at 9:15 o'clock. On any later evening it will be at 8 o'clock. In any event, it will be on the lawn of the municipal building.

Scores of aviators from surrounding communities will arrive in Warren tomorrow morning for a 'Breakfast Rendezvous' as guests of the merchants' committee. Acceptances have been received from points as far distant as Pittburgh and Rochester, N. Y. Between 50 and 60 planes are expected.

The West Ridge Transportation Company will furnish complimentary bus service from the airport for guests and officials only. Others desiring to visit the airport during the morning's activities should provide their own transportation, since the buses will not be operating for the public.

The Warren High School Band will provide a program of patriotic music next Friday evening, details of which will be announced later.

The Importance of the NEW DODGE

Dodge launches its new models with the full conviction that never before have power and comfort been combined in so satisfactory a partnership . . . Dodge with its All-Fluid Drive has removed the last barrier to complete smoothness in the transmission of engine horsepower. Now, in its new models, Dodge increases the capacity of its All-Fluid Drive. And Dodge develops in the Power-Flow engine far greater power, speed and sparkle of performance, much greater economy—and a finer ride than ever.

ROCK BOTTOM ECONOMY—NO "PREMIUM" FUEL PENALTY—

The new Dodge 105-horsepower Power-Flow engines save, at least, a full ten per cent in gasoline. More important, they give top performance on "regular" gasoline. The new engine has greater piston displacement, larger intake valves, entirely new manifolding for greater heat to the new and larger carburetor. It has a heavier, more rigid crankshaft, a lengthened piston stroke, newly designed and placed piston rings, protected from the maximum engine heat. And Dodge in these new cars employs a new gear ratio in the rear axle — thus reducing motor revolutions per minute — with greater saving of fuel, of oil, and of all moving parts.

LUTHERAN BOY SCOUT MEMBERS HOLD MEETING

The regular meeting of Troop 12, Boy Scouts of the First Lutheran church, will be held next Monday evening, according to announcement made at the enjoyable outing held by troop members, patrol dads and Washington Class members, troop sponsors, at Jefmore Lodge Thursday evening.

At 6:30 o'clock, the large group of men and boys sat down to a hearty meal of sweet corn and hot dogs. Grace was said in unison by troop members. Later, a vote of thanks was extended the leaders, Lloyd and Floyd Rapp, who had provided the bountiful supply of corn.

In a brief impressive ceremony conducted by Scoutmaster Leo Gleese Scout awards were presented. Second Class Scout certificates and pins were presented to Kenneth Park and Donald Peterson. Scout Myron King was given a rousing "How!" vote of thanks in appreciation of his splendid handling of his job as quartermaster at Troop 12's recent camp session at Camp Olmsted. First Class Scout Willard Smith, in token of faithful service, was presented with a certificate signifying his advancement to Senior Patrol Leader, which bore the signatures of all troop committeemen and patrol dads.

Arrangements for the evening were in charge of General Chairman Claude King. Supper was supervised by Committeeman Ronald Stover, with Assistant Scoutmaster John Ivor Larson; junior assistant Scoutmaster Regan Houston; troop committee chairman Charles Cable; patrol dad Milo Thompson; Scouts Myron King, Billy Engstrom, Dick Randall, Dick Thompson and others. Scoutmaster Leo Gleese welcomed the Rev. Edward K. Rogers as a guest at the party. A detail of Scouts cut logs and built a roaring fire in the great fireplace in Jefmore Lodge, which gave welcome warmth and cheer on the chill evening.

ham, Clarendon, Tiona, Saybrook, Sheffield, Barnes, Ludlow and the surrounding communities' election. It has been made possible by business interests which wish to bring humanitarian principles and the Golden Rule into everyday practice.

The business concerns that have aligned themselves with this newspaper in this cause are able to do so because of the support that has been given them in the past and because of the support experience has taught them to anticipate. This is a creative enterprise in which your baby, and every other baby in the community should play a part and receive a vital benefit.

The initial list of the leading firms that will give vote coupons with each purchase of 50 cents or over appears in today's paper.

The election will last a period of approximately nine weeks following publication next week of the first list of babies nominated.

Babies of this community within the age limit of six years may be nominated by any relative, friend or admirer. Mothers, fathers, grandparents, aunts and uncles, brothers and sisters, all admirers of babies, may nominate the baby of their choice.

Winners will be decided by the people of Warren and the surrounding community on a vote-count basis. Their votes for babies entered in the election may result from favoritism to any baby they know or may result from election of a favorite after seeing photographs of the entrants in this newspaper.

Babies of the cooperating merchants, their employes, employes of the Warren Times-Mirror business office are not eligible to participate.

The Shower of Cash will be directed to nourish the opportunities of the baby they choose. Anyone who wishes to compaign for any particular baby may do so and the method by which votes may be obtained are detailed in the two page announcement in this issue.

Each baby, as soon as nominated, automatically receive a complimentary starting ballot of 1,000 votes. Vote coupons will be printed in each issue of The Warren Times-Mirror to be clipped and cast and each coupon will count for the number of votes specified upon it. A coupon appears today.

Business houses and professional men cooperating with this newspaper will give coupons with cash purchases made in their stores, and on payments on account.

The Warren Times-Mirror will give votes upon payment of subscriptions.

"Young bloods" of the moment—our babies, are taking the situation in hand. They are going to knock what remains of the depression off with a smile; beam on good fortune with chortles of blissful delight and reap a harvest from love-caused adulation.

The harvest will come when they have grown old enough to use what they now reap, as intended by the friends and relatives who do the sowing. Your votes for a baby now may clear for that baby a path of happiness. It may mean the difference when he or she is ready to stand alone between mere exsitence and actual living.

$2,000 in 30 cash prizes and commissions will be awarded—THESE CASH AMOUNTS WILL BE GIVEN THE CHILDREN'S PARENTS WHEN THE WINNERS ARE DECIDED.

Something New Under the Sun

They didn't have elections like this when adults of today were babies; business men did not organize together in such movements. This generation has made progress; it is upon this progress that beneficiaries in this election will base their advances.

Hard knocks of experience were encountered by most of the successful adults of today to gain their laurels. They never had a movement like this to pick them up on the threshold of maturity and provide them with means of assisting in gaining the business education which is daily becoming more necessary to success. These citizens in particular will appreciate the full virtue of this baby election. The winning children will have a nest egg to look forward to and a good will send-off to look back on.

It is this newspaper's sincere desire to award a cash award to every baby entered in the election; therefore a ten per cent commission upon subscription payments made in its favor will be paid each baby not awarded one of the regularly listed cash prizes, with this exception; no commission will be paid where the amount due is less than three dollars.

Complete instructions covering this feature will be detailed in a later issue.

Heaven-sent gifts of paradise are really to receive this benefit. This newspaper is more than a weather prophet. It is the weather sender—it has definitely arranged and provided for the shower of cash which will give approximately $2,000 in cash prizes and commission to community babies, according to the plan.

It's going to rain dollars of opportunity for the babies we call ours but who will some day follow footprints of many other eminent community leaders to gain community-wide, state-wide, even world-wide influence for a happier civilization.

The Warren Times-Mirror's shower of cash is brewing. The silver-lined clouds are assembling.

THE ELECTION IS ON!

From Spitzbergen to Suez, from the North Atlantic to the Red Sea, bigger bombings, counter-blitzes and, finally, President Roosevelt's shooting order to the Navy made it a big week for Mars.

NUMEROUS VILLAGES RETAKEN

Moscow Dispatches Say That 47th and 24th German Tank Corps Routed And Estimate That Besides Nearly 10,000 Officers and Men Invaders Lost Over 260 Tanks, 600 Vehicles and Many Field Guns

NAZI U-BOATS STILL SLASHING AT CONVOY

Moscow, Sept. 13—(AP)—The Red Army was reported today to have rolled back a great German offensive on Bryansk, 220 miles southwest of Moscow, to have recaptured 26 towns and villages, and inflicted a loss of almost 10,000 Germans in a long, bloody battle.

The German drive was reported made by 12 German infantry divisions (about 180,000 men) and two tank corps.

Dispatches said the 47th and 24th German tank corps were routed and estimated that besides nearly 10,000 officers and men, the Germans lost more than 260 tanks, 600 vehicles and hundreds of field guns.

The Germans broke through toward Bryansk, midway on the Kiev-Moscow railway, late in August, according to these reports, but were defeated by a Russian counter-offensive which began 13 days ago.

In the sector about 150 miles northwest of Bryansk, persistent Red Army counter-attacks were said to have recaptured Setolovo, a village in the vicinity of Smolensk. Two German regiments were reported broken through in these counter-attacks.

In the past week alone, these reports said, the Russians captured 238 tanks, 135 guns, nine armored cars and 28 mortars and the Germans left 3,800 dead on the battlefield.

Tank units themselves were estimated to have destroyed or capturned 79 tanks, 32 guns and to have killed 2,500 Germans in a single battle.

In attacks on Nazi-held airdromes near the towns of Orsha, Mogilev, Roslavl and Bukhov behind the broad Bryansk-Smolensk zone, the Red air force was said to have downed 50 German planes in one week and destroyed more than 200 tanks and 500 trucks.

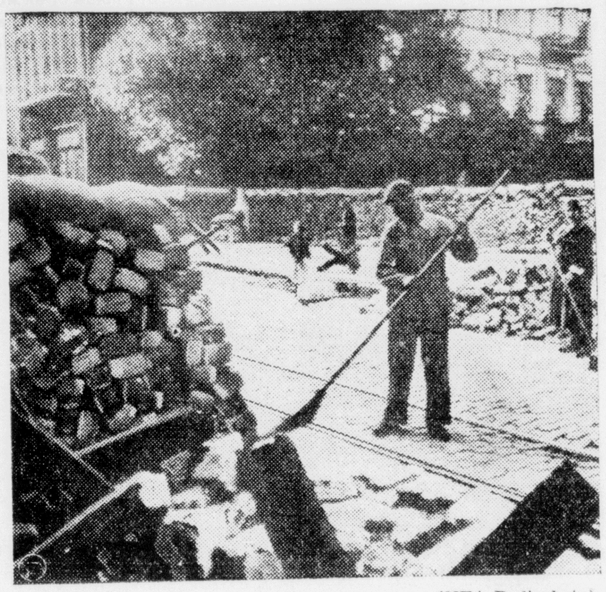

At the same time an increasing threat to Kiev, capital of the Ukraine, was disclosed in official acknowledgment of the fall of Chernigov.

Russian war correspondents said the Germans first concentrated

Gen. Pershing Quietly Observing His 81st Birthday Anniversary

Washington, Sept. 13—(AP)—General John J. Pershing became 81 years old today, observing the occasion quietly and without ceremony at Walter Reed Hospital here where friends said he had been undergoing his annual physical checkup.

In a message of birthday greeting to the army, the man who commanded the A. E. F. in France a quarter century ago declared that "there is no nation in the world whose citizenry affords better soldiers than the United States."

"Our men have the spirit and the stamina to defend their country at all costs," he declared. "This was shown in 1917 and will be again should the need arise." The message was issued through the army and

Cooperation of Merchants And Householders Solicited in Order to Properly Open Week's Sale of Defense Savings Stamps

LAST-MINUTE ADVICE

Plans for the 15-minute blackout to be held here Monday evening, starting at nine o'clock, to inaugurate "Retailers - for - Defense" week, being sponsored by the Retail Merchandising Committee of the Warren Chamber of Commerce, were completed today and the cooperation of merchants and householders was requested in order to make the event a worthy introduction of the week's sale of Defense Savings Stamps.

Merchants should have someone ready to turn off all lights promptly at nine o'clock and every home in the community should have all lights extinguished or the windows closely curtained, it was stated by the committee chairman. Flashlights should be kept handy for use if needed. Matches and candles should not be used because of fire hazards.

A sound truck, equipped with a siren, will be operated throughout the length of the town five minutes before the blackout. This will be followed at nine o'clock by the blowing of whistles and ringing of church bells for about five minutes, after which Carroll A. Fowler will play patriotic music on the chimes of the First Methodist church. Similar music will be

Eight Major Anthracite Producers Send Word to Price Administrator They "Cannot Accede" To His Order Canceling A 15-Cent a Ton Increase Scheduled to Become Effective Monday

SITUATION PREJUDGED MINE OWNERS CLAIM

Philadelphia, Sept. 13.—(AP)—The eight major anthracite producers sent word to Price Administrator Leon Henderson today that they "cannot accede" to his order cancelling a 15-cent a ton increase scheduled to become effective Monday.

Walter Gordon Merritt, counsel for the companies which produce more than 60 per cent of the nation's hard coal used mostly for heating homes, said Henderson's order intended to freeze prices at August 15 levels indicated he "prejudged the situation."

"Otherwise" Merritt wrote the price administrator, "there could be no doubt in your mind that the record fully supports the contention of both operators and mine workers that prices heretofore announced, effective Sept. 15, are necessary to sustain the present wage structure and to reduce the operating deficits so prevalent in the industry."

Merritt said the companies were ready to co-operate with the government in halting run-away commodity prices but "th'e'y cannot, consistently with the obligations imposed upon them, accede to any arbitrary price ceiling, even though temporary, which will not permit the fulfillment of such obligations."

WAGE ADVANCES FOR WORKERS IN PLANE PLANTS

Los Angeles, Sept. 13.—(AP)—Workers in eight major airplane plants of southern California congratulated themselves today upon a blanket increase in wages.

Aviation company officials said the increase in payroll costs would run into millions, but added that the advance was arranged in an effort to standardize the pay throughout the industry.

The flat increase of 10 cents an hour was ordered for all workers not previously benefitted in wage adjustments. In general, it will be retroactive to last July 1.

It also automatically put into effect at all plants a beginners' scale of 60 cents an hour, rising to 75 cents an hour over a period of three months. Several of the plants previously had established this basic scale, an advance of 10 cents an hour or more over former scales.

Douglas Aircraft Co., Vultee Aircraft, Inc., and Northrup Aircraft, Inc., announced the blanket increase, and the AFL International Association of Machinists was expected to ratify a similar increase today for workers at Lockheed Aircraft Corp., and its

Washington, Sept. 13—(AP)—Reliable congressional informants said today a joint conference committee had accepted virtually all Senate changes in the record-breaking revenue bill, including amendments estimated to add $52,800,000 to the tax burden on corporations.

The committee, appointed to adjust differences between the Senate and House versions of the revenue measure, was reported by one source to have written a compromise bill estimated by congressional experts at $3,550,000,000, which is $33,900,000 less than the estimated Senate total and $333,600,000 more than the expected revenue under the House measure. However, another legislator expressed the opinion that the compromise version would raise slight-

Weather-Beaten Wreckage Of Tiny Plane Tells of Disaster That Befell Clarksburg Flier Attempting Sea Hop in '39

LOCATED BY R. A. F.

St. John's, Newfoundland, Sept. 13—(AP)—The weather-beaten wreckage of a tiny plane found in the wilderness of Newfoundland told today of the disaster which befell Thomas H. Smith, who set off for trans-Atlantic adventure in his "Baby Clipper" two years ago.

"Walking out to avoid freezing," said a note left in the plane by the Clarksburg, W. Va., flier, who took off from Old Orchard Beach, Me., May 28, 1939, and was never seen nor heard from since.

No trace has been found of the flier.

Smith's note indicated that he realized he had only a slight chance to be found after the crash of his frail, 670-pound plane far from any settlement.

He wrote that his next of kin was Harvey S. Smith, of Clarksburg, W. Va. Then, it is believed, he began his search for civilization immediately, knowing his plight had been unobserved and that searchers would have to explore a vast area of sea and land between his starting point and his goal, Slyne Head, Ireland.

The exact place of the crash was not disclosed, but reports here said it was about 50 miles inland in western Newfoundland.

SAILORS STRIKE OVER WAR BONUS

New York, Sept. 13—(AP)—The Seafarers' International Union of North America (AFL) called a walkout at 11 a. m. (EST) today over a war-bonus dispute, ordering its members of "all ships bound for Axis or Allied ports."

"This strike will affect all ships bound for Axis or Allied ports," said John Hawk, union secretary-treasurer. "We are naturally not against carrying material to England, but since the Nazis are sinking boats regardless of location we want to protect our men. The operators show no signs of negotiating."

In New York harbor, three ships with cargoes of supplies for American defense bases in Bermuda and the West Indies cancelled their sailings as the crews walked out.

Hawk said the strike would af-

Shower of Money to Rain Down on Winners of Unusual Contest and Trade Expansion Launched Today

Warren and surrounding towns' babies, glorified sweethearts of our community, are to be escorted along their starting paths in life by progressive business concerns in cooperation with the Warren Times-Mirror.

A shower of cash, designated to provide the business educational foundation of success in life for a number of our protegees, is the rain down on winners of a Baby Election and Trade Expansion sponsored by this paper and the cooperating progressive business concerns.

Warren, North Warren, Sheffield, Youngsville, Clarendon, Pittsfield, Russell, and adjoining towns, and all rural children under six years of age are eligible for nomination. All they need is a picture for publication in this newspaper so that people of the community may choose their favorite, and arrangements even for their pictures without cost have been made by the Warren Times-Mirror.

This is to be a real election with real advantages at stake.

Two Thousand Dollars in cash and commissions, and two gold loving cups, bigger than many a baby, are the prizes—the Favorite Baby to receive the first cup, and the baby of opposite sex, polling the next highest number of votes will receive an identical cup; thus a King and Queen of Babyland will be elected.

The community's favorite baby will be given a cash award of $500 and the great loving cup, worth its weight in a lot of things.

The favorite baby will have a cabinet comprising the people's choice from the best babies that heaven ever sent for mortal exhilaration—the community's own.

They will be presented thrift anchors, cash awards whose final purpose is to provide our citizens of tomorrow with advantages which most adults of today never had.

God's gift to His Country—Baby Realm, is to enjoy an elaboration. The happiness-generators of our community are to receive the recognition which is their due.

Eighteen years, twenty years—even the ripened experience of old age will find them looking back on the gifts of their parents; the descendants when they were equipped with means to go onward even further than has been done in the past.

The election is your baby's election; your neighbor baby's election; Warren, East and North Warren, Chandlers Valley, Sugar Grove, Russell, Akeley, Starbrick, Pleasant Township, Irvin, Youngsville, Garland, Pittsfield, Torpedo, Grand Valley, Rogertown, Stone-

TOKYO MEETING TOLD JAPAN IS READY TO FIGHT

Tokyo, Sept. 13.—(AP)—Seigo Nakano, extreme nationalist political leader, told a great mass meeting today that Japan is prepared to fight to the last man in the event she cannot reach a settlement of her differences with the United States through diplomatic channels.

Nakano, whose speech was advertised as a reply to the Roosevelt-Churchill "Atlantic charter," discounted the possibility of a Japanese rapproachment with the United States and Britain because, he said, their positions are fundamentally opposed.

Tokyo newspapers reported Nakano's speech briefly, playing it down, and a Domei news agency broadcast also tended to minimize it. Only one paper, Chugai, carried a short story on page one, quoting Nakano as saying later that "America is using peace offensive tactics, sometimes conciliating, sometimes threatening Japan, while building an iron ring around her which is not iron but only wooden planks."

Nakano, head of the reactionary Tohokai political group, warned that Japan "must be vigilant lest prolongation of negotiations in Washington eliminate her chance to expand southward."

He accused Britain and the United States of trying to intimidate the Axis powers by using Soviet Russian resistance as propaganda, but declared the United States at present had her hands full in the Atlantic.

UNION LEADERS PLAN ACTION IN MINERS' REVOLT

As Workers in Shenandoah Area Fields Schedule Vote to Decide Whether They Will Join Revolt, Disciplinary Action is Considered

LEWIS REMAINS SILENT

Hazleton, Sept. 13—(AP)—Leaders of 10,000 miners in the Shenandoah area of Pennsylvania's hard coal fields scheduled a vote today to decide whether the diggers would join the spreading rank-and-file revolt against increased union dues and assessments.

At the same time, officials of District Seven, CIO United Mine Workers of America, met to discuss possible disciplinary action against an already idle 10,000 miners who have closed 14 collieries since Tuesday.

The vote of the Shenandoah miners was arranged although closing of the mines for the usual week-end holiday halted at least temporarily the drive to spread the walkout.

Garrett Miller, a leader of the insurgents, called off the drive until Monday "to avoid possible bloodshed" after a band of 250 miners yesterday closed two more collieries in the Mahanoy City area and failed at a third, where fist fights broke out. Fourteen major collieries now are shut down.

Revolt chieftains said they were

NAZIS IN IRAN BEING DEPORTED

Teheran, Iran, Sept. 12.—(Delayed)—(AP)—Eighty Nazis bound for internment in India and Siberia left here by train today while British and Russian diplomats listened in irritation to their sieg heils echoing through Teheran's palatial marble depot.

Seventy-two of the group went by special train to Ahwaz, enroute to India, while eight were aboard one coach of a Kazvin train with Siberia as their destination.

Allied displeasure was manifest over a series of excuses and asserted misunderstandings whereby the German legation failed twice to deliver the prisoners and finally produced only 80 of the 275 men demanded of it.

BATTLE OF ATLANTIC INCREASES

Britain Acknowledges Loss Of Eight Ships Out of Convoy from Which German High Command Says U-Boats Had Sunk 31, as Washington Quarters Discuss Action to Place Guns on Cargo Ships

PRESIDENT'S SPEECH STIRS ANGER IN REICH

By the Associated Press

The battle of the Atlantic increased in tempo today with Britain acknowledging loss of eight ships out of a convoy from which the German High Command said U-boats had sunk 31, and with Washington quarters predicting that American cargo vessels soon would be armed.

The British admiralty said the convoy had reached port after experiencing two U-boat attacks and an air assault, battling a raging storm and just escaping a Nazi surface raider. Torpedoes were acknowledged to have sunk three ships and bombs four. Another foundered in the gale after being damaged by a bomb.

The German High Command communique raised the claimed toll from a single convoy to 31—28 merchantmen and three warships. Yesterday it had claimed 22 freighters positively sunk and two probably by way of reply to President Roosevelt's order to U. S. Atlantic forces to shoot on sight any Axis raiders appearing in U. S.-patrolled waters. Apparently the two probables now are claimed as definite sinkings.

Discussion in Washington of guns for U. S. merchantmen was intensified by the announcement that another American-owned freighter of Panama registry, the Montana, was torpedoed Thursday morning while en route to Iceland, about 12 hours before the president's declaration against the Nazi raiders.

Arming the merchantmen would require congressional alteration of the neutrality act, but one legislator said he left a White House conference prior to Roosevelt's Thursday night speech with the impression that the suggestion soon would be put into concrete form.

Mash Notes 24 Years Old Causing Thrills

When the Alumin Goods Manufacturing Company made army canteens during the World War, many of the girls employed as wrappers slipped notes with their names and addresses into the metal bottles.

Thousands of the canteens, unused in '17 and '18, are being distributed to the new army and the notes are paying off.

T. B. SOCIETY TO MAKE PLANS AT OIL CITY MEET

"In this period of defense preparations Pennsylvania is confronted with the problem of preventing tuberculosis making a new comeback."

This statement was made today by Dr. W. W. Comfort, president of the Pennsylvania Tuberculosis Society, in announcing that the fifth of a series of sectional conferences to plan for the 35th annual Christmas Seal Sale will be held in Oil City next Wednesday at the Arlington.

"For a number of years up to 1940 there was a substantial drop in the tuberculosis death rate in Pennsylvania," continued Dr. Comfort. "Last year the decrease was very slight and during the first part of this year the deaths ran slightly ahead of the same period in 1940. This is ominous when it is remembered that during past war years tuberculosis has increased greatly even in countries not engaged in war."

The National Tuberculosis Association will be represented by Miss Frances Brophy, of the Seal Sale Service of the National Tuberculosis Association, at this conference for southeastern Pennsylvania which has been arranged by the Pennsylvania Tuberculosis Society. Its affiliated organizations in these counties are included in the conference:

Clarion, Crawford, Elk, Erie, Forest, Jefferson, McKean, Mercer, Venango, and Warren.

Warren Citizens' Committee Has Interesting Meeting; Plans Made

At a well-attended and enthusiastic meeting of the Citizens' committee last evening in the Geracimos private dining room, officers were elected and a lengthy discussion held regarding future plans and projects to be fostered or aided during the coming months.

Among the proposals that received considerable attention was a Community observance during the Christmas season, with the possibilities of a parade and carol singing around a tree that would be erected in the business section.

With Ben Kinnear presiding the following officers were elected: Chairman, Ed C. Lowrey, vice chairman and treasurer, H. B. Pettit; secretary, A. E. Johnson. The chairman was directed to name a project committee which will be announced later.

It was decided that a luncheon meeting will be held by the committee the third Monday in each month, and that an effort will be made to enlarge the committee by enlisting members of various service clubs and other civic organizations in the activities of the group.

The only contest of the election, that for the Republican nomination for judge, which was won by the organization candidate, Allison Wade, induced a total of 312 Republicans to cast a vote. The Democratic party, with nary a contest on its local and county slates, polled 62 votes.

Three persons received write-in votes on the Democratic ticket, as follows: Dr. J. E. Thompson, of Youngsville, 3 votes for County Coroner; District Attorney Joseph Goldstein, of Warren, who was unopposed for renomination on the Republican ticket, 1 vote for the same office; Harold C. METHODISTS TO ATTEND SESSION AT MEADVILLE

Many Warren Methodists are planning to go to Meadville tomorrow for concluding sessions of the Erie Conference, being held at Allegheny College. Assignment of pastors for the coming year will be one of the features of the day.

Because the pastors are attending the conference sessions, Methodist churches here are omitting preaching services tomorrow.

D. Steward Patterson, of the Methodist Board of Temperance, told the conference last night "we are fast becoming the most drunken nation in the world."

"Democracy will survive if and only when religion is primary and not secondary in life," he said. "We are spiritual in theory but pagan in practice."

Referring to politics, he urged that "if the church has anything to say that means an upturn in the community, then let the church say it."

Dr. W. E. Bartlett said Methodist laymen are among the "most devoted in America, but are unconcerned about many important avenues of life."

"I am not pleading for a return to brimstone preaching although in our pleasure-loving world I am not sure but that some of it would do us good," he continued, suggesting that pastors interpret the Bible in terms of 20th century life for both individuals and society.

Dr. Bartlett reported that four superintendents in the Conference travelled 80,000 miles last year in making their calls on Conference pastorates.

The annual laymen's banquet, a feature of the annual meeting, was held at Allegheny College last night, with Edgar T. Welsh of Westfield, N. Y., chairman of the board of lay activities, in charge.

Family Reunions

SIDON FAMILY

The annual reunion of the Julius Sidon family was held at his home at Starbrick, with 45 relatives and friends present from Warren, North Warren, Kane and Pittsburgh. All enjoyed the picnic dinner served on a long table placed under a pine tree on the lawn.

During the business session, the following officers were elected: President, Guy Schuler; vice president, Albert Sidon; secretary, Ruth Gardner; treasurer, Freda Toner. The next reunion will be held the same place on the Sunday preceding Labor Day, 1942. A wiener roast was held in early evening to conclude the day's events.

FAVORITE BABY CONTEST

Something new in contests is announced in this issue, which will be of particular interest to all parents of babies under five years of age, as well as their adoring relatives and friends, in which youngsters are to be escorted along their starting paths in life by progressive business concerns in co-operation with the Times-Mirror.

Through this unusual competitive project a shower of cash designated to provide the business educational foundation of success in life for a number of proteges, is to rain down on winners of a Baby Election and Trade Expansion sponsored by this paper and the co-operating merchants.

The election will last a period of approximately eight weeks following publication next week of the first list of babies nominated. Babies of this community within the age limit of five years may be nominated by any relative, friend or admirer. Mothers, fathers, grandparents, aunts and uncles, brothers and sisters—any one—may nominate the baby of their choice.

Winners will be decided by the people of Warren and vicinity on a vote-count basis. For full particulars see the advertisement and explanatory article in this issue.

With favorable weather Warren's going to have plenty of aerial entertainment tomorrow morning, but you'll have to get up a little early to enjoy it.

Many motorists have been fascinated by the operation of the vast equipment that is being used on the Jamestown road improvement project.

The Boy Scouts did an excellent job in distributing the defense bond posters for the Chamber of Commerce. Fine work, lads!

Buy your season tickets now for the Warren Players' attractions. You can't make a better investment!

Many a Warren bridegroom opening the fruit his wife canned this summer is going to get an awful jar!

Lot of folks will breath easier now that it has been decided to reopen the Russell school.

The Sugar Grove fair certainly enjoyed fair weather.

WEEKLY SERMONETTE

THE YIELDED LIFE

REV. L. W. DRURY
Pilgrim Holiness Church

Text: "Yield yourselves unto God."—Rom. 6:13.

The sixth chapter of Romans begins with a question, "Shall we continue in sin?" The answer is, "God forbid", or, in our language, "Let it not be so." We have a Christ who saves from all sin. The purpose of His coming into the world is given by the Apostle John when he said, "For this purpose was the Son of God manifested, that He might destroy the works of the Devil." No sin is too black but what God can forgive and "He is able to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by Him, seeing He ever liveth to make intercession for them." The apostle goes on to say, "How shall we who are dead to sin live any longer therein?" To die to a thing is to have nothing to do with it, or to be separated from it; and to live to a thing is to be wholly given up to it. The baptism of death spoken of in this chapter likens us to Jesus who died and was raised again by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life.

As it required the glory of the Father (His glorious energy) to raise up Christ from the dead, so it requires the same glorious energy to quicken the dead soul of the sinner and enable him to walk in newness of life. This power of God can change lives. It picked a Saul up out of formalism and made him the great Apostle Paul. It picked a Jerry McCauly from the gutters of sin and made him a mission superintendent. It picked a Jack Donovan out of the prize ring and made a preacher of righteousness of him, and, friend, this same power can change your life and mine.

Being raised in newness of life is not all: the same God who saves us from our sins can cleanse our heart from all sin and sanctify us wholly. "And the very God of peace sanctify your wholly and I pray God your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ." This is the yielded life. God wants us to put ourselves into His Almighty hand, there to be kept by the power of God unto salvation, ready to be revealed in the last day. Gracious results are obtained in yielding to God, for it is He that supplies our every need.

A yielded life, a yielded heart and a yielded mind to all the will of God will produce happy Christians, and help us attain the standard of Christianity mentioned in the grand old book, the Bible. Back to the Bible and the God of the Bible should be the heart cry of every good citizen of this fair land of ours.

A prayer:

"Yielded to Thee, Holy Spirit divine,
Henceforth Thy will shall forever be mine.
Since I surrendered completely to Thee,
Thou art abiding forever with me.

Yielded to Thee, Thou dost cleanse me from sin.
Making me pure and holy within;
Yielded to Thee, Thou doth purge me from dross.
Now with rejoicing I carry my cross.

Around New York

By GEORGE TUCKER

NEW YORK—You are looking at Dacita, of whom the public is becoming increasingly aware. Her father, a scientist, a research expert in the study of malaria on the island of Puerto Rico, wanted her to study medicine. So she obtained her bachelor's degrees from the U. of P. R. and came to America for her master's degree—but instead she met Ned Wayburn and became a dancer.

How does she get that sweeping, gliding motion into what appears to be West Indian congas and rhumbas? . . . She studied Javanese dancing. . . . "I handle the moracas with a wide sweep," she tells you between appearances at the Rainbow Room. There are tricks of oriental poise and serenity which she incorporates into her dancing. These differ from Cuban technique, but they blend beautifully.

DACITA is about 23. She is five, five. Even when she was a kid in short dresses she became interested in dancing because one of the family cooks was a bomba expert. . . . She wouldn't dance the bomba unless she was having a little nip. . . . White people aren't supposed to see the real bomba; it has a religious significance.

"She was fat but graceful," explains Dacita, "and she had the straightest back I ever saw; it was from her that I first thought of dancing and began to analyse rhumbas and congas. We also had an old servant who was 104 years old. He knew all the arias from all the operas and he used to sing them to me. He never wore shoes in his life and his teeth all were perfect. He could roast a pig better than anyone in the islands and everybody wanted to borrow him. He took three generations of our family to the opera."

AFTER Dacita decided that maybe dancing was more fun than ministering to human ills, she danced through most of the haunts of the West Indies, the Bahamas and Florida. She also became a model and at the same time studied voice. . . . "I want to get out on that floor and sing," she tells you in husky accents. . . . "Most Spanish people want either to sing or dance. . . . I want to do both."

Dacita tells me she is pure Spanish. She says her people came out to Puerto Rico several generations ago under a system that, she feels, may have contributed to the decline of Spain as a world power.

"What system was that?"

"Paid substitutes," she replied. "When rich young men were called for military service, they sent paid substitutes and then left for the islands."

She now has been in New York for three years. One of her first experiences here was on Broadway in the short-lived revue "Crazy With the Heat." . . . But 1941 seems to be the year she has been waiting for. . . . Everything this year, so far, has been good. "Look," says Dacita, "I keep my fingers crossed—both hands, same time."

King Carol of Rumania Flees to Cuba, Mexico

RUMANIA'S notorious playboy king, Carol II, falls into somewhat of a different category than his fellow-refugee monarchs. He was forced to abdicate under internal pressure, not an onrushing German army, and his ultimate destination was Mexico rather than England.

On Sept. 5, 1940, the Gigurtu cabinet resigned in Rumania and Carol appointed Ion Antonescu prime minister. Antonescu, leader of the Fascist Iron Guard, took full charge of the government. The following day Carol was forced to abdicate. His young son, Michael, became puppet king.

The 1940 stamp above, issued just before his abdication, was in commemoration of the 10th anniversary of Carol's accession to the throne. The surtax was used to increase Rumania's air force.

Accompanied by Magda Lupescu, his mistress, Carol fled to Spain, thence to Portugal, where he boarded a U. S. liner to Bermuda. He arrived in Havana, Cuba, by plane May 12, 1941. Later he moved to Mexico.

Carol renounced his right of succession to the Rumanian throne in 1925, returned in 1930 to succeed 9-year-old Michael, who had been king under a regency for three years.

SPORTOCABULARY

The lingo of the sports pages is often misunderstood by a great many of our citizens, with the exception of Dodger fans, who know sportslang better than English. What sport do you think we're talking about in each of the following sentences?

1. Wilbur ran down the alley after the ball.
2. Elmer met Edith on the court to do his courting.
3. Chester, already having put four in the cups, was ready for the next tee.
4. Little Jack Horner sat in his corner, and later kissed the canvas.
5. Brooklyn Tom stood up in the stretch, but a fly made him howl.

YEARS AGO IN WARREN

Interesting Items Taken From the Warren Evening Times

In 1921

Much excitement has been shown over the outcome of a fracas staged annually on the high school grounds which is known as the "rush." The demonstration assumed such an alarming state that a police officer was summoned to restore order. Four young lady members of the junior class were whirled away in autos and left to walk home unaccompanied and without shoes.

Charles Clark, who has volunteered to lead the Warren Band is enthusiastic over the prospects of the organization and hopes to develop it into one of the leading musical bodies in this section of the state.

Two Ford Lizzies, one of them belonging to the Ettinger Electrical company, engaged in a mixup at Madison and South streets Tuesday with the result that the Ettinger truck lost a forward wheel.

N. A. Kidder, of North Warren, recalled today that he attended the dedication of the State Hospital for the Insane on September 10, 1874, and he states that there was a killing frost on that date 47 years ago.

The bicycle as a vehicle of conveyance is still popular. This morning fifty wheels were parked along the curb between Market and East streets on Third avenue.

In 1931

At the 57th annual convention of the Warren County W. C. T. U., at North Warren last night, the following officers were elected: President, Mrs. Mabel Dallas; vice president, Mrs. Ora Johnson; corresponding secretary, Miss Margaret Day; recording secretary, Miss Margaret Lena Jackson; treasurer, Mrs. Edith Stauffer.

For the seventh time in the history of the church, Warren again is host to the Erie annual conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, which convened in the ninety-sixth annual session at the First M. E. church, this afternoon, with Bishop Herbert Welch, of Pittsburgh, presiding.

Warren is particularly interested, and honored in a new book just published and placed in circulation today by the Warren Public Library. It is titled "The International Court" and written by the eminent court jurist of Warren county, Edward Lindsey.

Miss Elizabeth Craft is entertaining a few friends this afternoon at her Liberty street home at an informal tea.

David W. Crossett has returned to Pennsylvania Military College at Chester, accompanied by his brother, Robert, who is also entering there this year.

A WASHINGTON DAYBOOK

By JACK STINNETT

WASHINGTON—A friend who catches these paragraphs occasionally said: "I remember once you wrote about what you would do in Washington if you were a tourist. Tell me, what would you see and where would you go if you weren't a tourist?"

It took a little digging to get what he meant, but I got it. He didn't want to see the Washington Monument, the Capitol Congress in session, the Lincoln Memorial and such. He wanted to take the back roads and depend on them to give him the feel of the country—or in this case, the city—he was passing through.

It was a tough assignment After all, whoever heard of any one trying to explain how NOT to be a Washington guide? But it was fun trying and I'm going to pass along this list of things to do and places to go in Washington that tourists might miss.

FIRST, I'd turn my back on the Washington Monument and watch horse shoe pitching or the soft-ball games in the tree-shaded areas of Potomac Park. These contests are nearly always departmental and although I doubt that you'll ever find a cabinet member working up a lather on the team, you would be surprised if some one pointed out the big "execs" that sometimes are in the galleries.

Having wended down tree shaded Mount Vernon Memoria highway to the one-time home o George Washington, I would tak one look at the back door, walk out through the boxwood hedges to the left, glimpse at the little octagonal schoolroom (two pupils only) and be sure that Mount Vernon was much better than the postcards.

I'd go down to the waterfront (it's only the Potomac) and have lunch or dinner at one of the seafood "jernts"—and I would insist that the waiter or waitress tell me what's "in season" (with the specific understanding that if I don't like it, I'll send it back).

I would go to the Department of Justice building—beat my way right through to the office and conference room of the Attorney General and spend as long as I liked looking at the two murals by Leon Kroll. One of them is called "The Defeat of Justice" the other, "The Victory of Justice." In this latter, I would note that Chief Justice Harlan F. Stone is one of the principal characters and I would reflect that when this mural was painted, Mr. Stone was just another Associate Justice.

Since these murals are among the very few in Washington not on the "tourist" agenda, and almost the only ones which critics agree are practically the best, I would be positive that I had made my bow to some of the greatest of today's art—of which Washington, oddly enough (never having been considered a world art center), now is very full.

I WOULD pull all the strings I could to get into the Washington Navy Yard. It really isn't a "Navy Yard," but it's 115 acres of the Navy's best in modern "ordnance," which includes everything from minutely-ground lenses for binoculars to gigantic 16-inch guns. Besides, its the only place in the world where you can see such historic ships anchored almost bow-to-stern as the old "Hartford" and the "Potomac" — which has carried President Roosevelt from the fishing trips of peaceful days to a conference in the North Atlantic.

I'd drive (without stopping) through the hills of Arlington Cemetery; walk for hours along the old Canal that winds for more than 200 miles up the Potomac river; pedal a bicycle through the maze of Rock Creek Park; and telephone my congressman and say I didn't want anything.

Letters to the Editor

Editor Times-Mirror.
Dear Sir:

I read an account of the meeting of the Warren borough council last Monday, Sept. 8, with a great deal of interest, because I was wondering what would be said about a Councilman having a cancelled check from the borough records which he used as a heading for some political advertising. Now it would seem that in order to make a photostatic copy of a check it would have to be removed from the borough building, which removal, in my opinion, should be questioned by the Burgess, President of Council, or at least some Councilman.

No citizen would be allowed to remove any of the borough records, especially when they might be used for political propaganda, and I believe a Councilman, when he is a lawyer, should and does know better.

Taxpayer.

1. Tennis, most likely, with Wilbur chasing the tennis ball down the alley. Other possibilities: bowling, although running down the alley is quite unorthodox; and sandlot baseball, chasing a long hit.

2. Tennis, again, with romance on the moonlit tennis court. Or basketball, perhaps, if the gym was deserted.

3. Chester, it appear, was about to start his fifth hole in a golf game.

4. Jack Horner was a prize fighter this time, but not a very good one.

Rebekah Lodges Entertain Assembly Officers At Banquet and Sessions; Degree Is Conferred

adamant in their demands that the UMW rescind orders raising dues and assessments from a total of $14 to $24 a year, Miller declaring "these increases are only a wedge to open the door to unlimited assessments." Approved by the union's general membership in a national referendum, the increases are collected through the check-off system. Diggers in this area voted against the boost.

UMWA President John L. Lewis' regional leaders ordered the insurgents back to their jobs, declaring the work stoppage unauthorized, but Lewis himself declined comment. His Washington office sent a representative here for a conference with regional officers, while the insurgent heads also scheduled a meeting to map their next move.

The walkout started early this week in the union's district seven, which embraces Hazleton and Panther Creek Valley areas, where Miller said 20,000 were idle.

SEEK SETTLEMENT OF WALKOUT AT BEAVER

Pittsburgh, Sept. 13—(AP)—Aiming to speed settlement of their strike at the $5,000,000 partially completed propeller plant of the Curtiss-Wright Corporation in Beaver, AFL union leaders today sought to have the dispute transferred from the National Defense Mediation Board to the recently-created OPM board of review.

After conferences with state and federal labor conciliators, James Ahearn of the AFL Pittsburgh Building Trades Council said the unions believed the board of review "could act" decisively and much more quickly than the Defense Mediation Board."

Should Japan decide to send her navy and air force—which he said included 500 ships and 4,000 planes—into the south Pacific, Britain and the United States would be powerless to protect the sea routes to Manila, Singapore and Australia, Nakano asserted.

Ceiling On Hard Coal Assailed

The companies' spokesman declared Henderson's order in effect was issued at a disadvantageous point in the established series of price setups between April and September. The producers, he said, have for 40 years followed a policy of reducing prices in the spring and of restoring them gradually through the summer.

Merritt argued that figures submitted to OPA showed the proposed increase would make anthracite only eight per cent more than the mine price of the same time in 1940 "notwithstanding an increase of 12 per cent in wages (granted in May and including vacation payments) and a mounting increase in material costs." The spokesman added "no reasonable person will say that x x x is profiteering."

Henderson, declaring producers failed to show the proposed increase justified, yesterday froze prices at the mines at $6.60 for principal domestic sizes of broken egg, stove and chestnut, $5.40 for pea coal, $3.75 for buckwheat No. 1, $2.90 for rice and $2.45 for barley. Philadelphia retailers, reporting increased distribution costs, said they also would have to advance prices if they go up at the mines.

In reply to Henderson's announcement that the industry would be given opportunity to submit additional information in support of the contemplated price increase, Merritt said that the fullest particulars had been submitted.

Companies the spokesman said he represented are the Glen Alden, Hudson, Jeddo-Highland, Lehigh Navigation, Lehigh Valley Pennsylvania, Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron and Susquehanna collieries.

Gasoline Scare Baseless Sen. Walsh Declares

(From Page One)

Davies has refused to accept the railroad's estimates and has urged that the pipeline be built.

Meanwhile Senator Walsh (D-Mass.) wrote Davies that he had information that the eastern gasoline scare "was baseless and that the curtailment and rationing orders were unjustified."

Supplies of motor fuel for retailers have been reduced 10 per cent below the July level, and filling stations in 17 states and the District of Columbia have been closing from 7 p. m. to 7 a. m. nightly.

Walsh declared that 80 tankers carrying petroleum products arrived in Boston harbor during August compared with 64 in the same month last year and noted that tankers now are allowed to carry heavier loads. Walsh said he feared that small, independent units of the oil industry were being injured by the filling station curfew and asked Davis to comment.

STOCK MARKET KEEPS BALANCE ON SPECULATIVE TRAPEZE DURING DAY

New York, Sept. 13—(AP)—The stock market kept its balance on the speculative trapeze today without a great deal of effort.

While many leaders moped throughout the brief proceedings and minor declines were fairly well distributed, there were a few relatively strong spots and fractional advances were plentiful at the close.

The ticker tape was a sluggish performer from the start and transfers for the two hours were around 200,000 shares.

Rails did moderately well in an otherwise irregular bond department. Commodities exhibited further rising inclinations for a while but a drop in grains eventually unsettled the staples section.

J. I. Case was an isolated sprinter in the share division, again going into new high ground for the year, Deere, Oliver Farm and Caterpillar Tractor also attracted bids. The revival of implement shares was attributed partly to the belief the recent sharp upswing in agricultural products, combined with the scarcity of labor due to defense requirements, would expand demand for machinery in rural districts.

Carriers were aided by a number of good earnings reports and the belief freight traffic would begin to climb in coming weeks. Rail issues up at intervals were Chesapeake and Ohio, Atlantic Coast Line, Pennsylvania and N. Y. Central.

Douglas Aircraft and Boeing tacked on gains and support was accorded Sears Roebuck, General Motors, Western Union, Westinghouse, General Electric, Goodrich and North American. Steels were at a standstill. Laggards included Montgomery Ward, Chrysler, du Pont, Phelps Dodge and U. S. Rubber.

CHICAGO GRAIN

Chicago, Sept. 13.—(AP)—Profit taking continued to plague the grain market today and prices of wheat and corn sagged fractionally although oats and rye were steady at the opening.

Starting ⅛-½ lower, December $1.22⅝-¾, May $1.27⅛-1.27, wheat later held near this range. Corn started unchanged to ⅜ off, December 84½, May 89⅞-¾.

BABY IS KING

A rose-curtained cradle, where nestled within
Soft cambric and flannel, lies pounds seventeen,
Is the throne of a tyrant, that pink little thing
Is an autocrat ruler, for baby is king.
Good, solemn grandfather dares hardly speak
Or walk, lest the sleeper should hear his boots creak
Grandma is a martyr in muslins and cap
Which the monarch unsettles, as well as her nap.
Papa wise and mighty, just home from "the house"
Grows meek at the threshold and moves like a mouse.
To stare at the bundle, then outward he goes.
Good aunties and cousins before him bow low
Though he rumples the ringlets, twists collars and bow,
He bids the nurse walk with his majesty's self,
And he cries when she stops, like a merciless elf.
He winks right and left his saucy, fat fist
And then the next moment expects to be kissed.
He demands people's watches to batter about,
Then falling to conquer, with passionate cry,
He quivers his lips, keeps a tear in his eye;
And so wins the battle, the wise little thing
He knows, the world over, that baby is king!

COMMUNITY STORES:

are asked to consider this a special invitation from the Warren Times-Mirror to participate in the Favorite Baby Election. The plan of issuing Baby Votes is very simple . . . a coupon being given your customer with each 50c cash purchase or payment on account. Coupons cost a merchant but one-half cent each. There is no other charge of any kind to a merchant. Babies from every town within the trading territory of Warren will be entered and it is believed merchants from all points will find this plan both interesting and profitable.

WHERE TO GET BABY VOTES

From today look for the signs, printed in red and black, appearing on the windows and in stores and offices of leading community merchants and business men. With each 50c cash purchase or payment on account you will receive a coupon at these business establishments—each coupon entitles any baby you select to votes—thus these progressive firms cooperate in helping the people elect a King and Queen of Babyland by popular vote. Always ask for Baby Votes when you make a purchase—merchants want you to have them, but ask for at the time the purchase is made. The Baby Selection starts now and ends Saturday, November 22, 1941.

JACKETS TANGLE WITH HOMEWOOD A. C. HERE TOMORROW

Locals Seek Victory In First Encounter; Reese Outfit Heavy

Substitutes: Homewood—Moran, White, Pioth, Laffey, Pearlstein, Borosso, Keenan, Kalinowski, Ruefle, Grose, Kubrick. Red Jackets—DeSantis, Ernie Sedon, Giancotti, Martines, Blossey, Fredericks, Traub, Dahlgren, Murphy, Graham, Guichard.

With good weather in the offing a crowd of 2,000 grid fans or better is expected to come from this section of the state and southwestern New York tomorrow afternoon to see the initial encounter of the Warren Red Jackets against the Homewood C. C., strong Pittsburgh aggregation, the kickoff slated for 2:30 o'clock (DST), on Russell Field.

A team that has become one of the most respected outfits on gridirons in and around Pittsburgh, the revamped lineup of the Homewood club is ready to hand the Jackets a real fight in the fracas, and are confident that they will return home with a triumph.

Homewood played here last year against one of the finest Red and Yellow teams this community has ever produced and lost a 21-7 decision after playing a great game throughout the first half. Reserve power on the part of the locals was mainly responsible for last year's shellacking, but the same mistake won't be made again by the invaders.

On the other side, the local crew under the guidance this year of the clever "Doc" Reese and his capable assistant, Bill Paris, looks to be ready to dish out quite a game of the grid sport itself, and with a line that averages better than 205 pounds per man, plus a speedy backfield which includes three pony backs and a 245 pound fullback, the Jackets should be able to go places and do things.

Tomorrow afternoon's game will be an experiment for the new Jacket organization. Russell Field will be the laboratory and the Homewood team will be the test which the Jackets must undergo. On whether or not they pass successfully will rest their chances for going through an exceptionally fine season or possibly hitting it off at just a normal clip.

Reese and Paris, highly satisfied with the progress made by the squad, are sure their proteges will come through with flying colors, chalk up their first victory in what they hope will be a long string, and give local and sectional followers a brand of football such as they have enjoyed for the past ten years.

The team as a whole is eager to get into the game tomorrow and will go after a quick lead which will give them the advantage over their opponents. With a strong aerial attack and plenty of smart running for a good ground offensive, the locals should have little trouple in making substantial gains, but the question lies in their defense, and how much yardage will be added up on the Homewood ledger.

Season tickets will be honored and though the attraction will be in the form of a booster game, popular prices will prevail, unlike other years when the initial tilt, always being a booster event, saw the prices pushed up a bit.

DECISION IN A SWING

Hollywood, Sept. 13—(AP)—Verne Bybee, San Francisco boxer, lost his bout because he swung too hard.

Ahead on points, Bybee put everything he had into a right smash to the jaw of Toby Vigil, Los Angeles Mexican, in the fourth round of their scheduled 10-roumder last night.

The blow was too much for Bybee. He slumped to the canvas with a dislocated shoulder. Referee Benny Witman halted the match at two minutes and 32 seconds and awarded Vigil a technical knockout.

Each weighed 133.

Frank Crosetti, Yankees—His single with bases loaded set off five-run splurge against Tigers in fourth inning.

Don Litwhiler, Phillies—Hit timely single and two-run homer to lead assault on Cubs.

SPORT SPATTERINGS

EVERYTHING SET FOR RED JACKETS TO PRY LID OFF NEW CAMPAIGN; ALLEGHENY COLLEGE PREPARING FOR HARD SEASON

With the team in good shape, the season ticket sale having gone over the top so well that a good sized crowd will finally be found within the reserved seat sections at Red Jacket games this fall starting Sunday, and the weatherman so far hinting that the sun will shine, everything seems ready for a successful start for the local semi-pros in their first lap in the race during the new campaign for tri-state grid honors. Every opponent that approaches the city line from Pittsburgh or other points in Pennsylvania this fall will be gunning for the locals because of the fact that they presently are western Pennsylvania semi-pro champions, and therefore remain the team to beat this year. Homewood gets the first shot tomorrow and, with a rejuvenated club, may surprise the Jackets and their followers. With many of their better players from last year back, and exceptionally fine new material strengthening the squad, the invaders may cut the odds on themselves entering the game as underdogs before game time. It has been learned by this bureau that the capable "Piney" Johnson, Jamestown football official, will be available again this season, though for a time it was indefinite, and he will be the first man in that department on Sunday. Wilbur from Titusville will serve as umpire, and Gerry Peterson, young local official, will work the game in the capacity of head linesman. With interest steaming after a dull summer of sports in this community, this corner predicts the crowd will soar ot record heights as the first fine outdoor treat is offered Warren this year in the way of professional sports.

Under youthful Coach Al Werner, 24-year-old mentor who has just taken over the reins in the football department at Allegheny College, the 'Gators are expected to gain vengeance for their past two winless seasons in the coming campaign and, with a squad of hustling veterans, reinforced with some favorable undergraduate material, Werner may experience a far better year than has been seen in quite some time down at Meadville. And among the lettermen returning who will make up the brunt of the starting lineup as intentions are now are: Warren's Bill Chapman, who gave local fans some fine scholastic ball under Leidig; Ralph Marasco, a senior at Allegheny who hails from Kane and was the standout player on last year's team; Dick Roeder and Paul Krantz from Bradford, and Frank McKnight of Franklin. These boys are already going through the drills and another valuable letterman, Wally Hansen, of Ludlow, will join them soon. Chapman shaped into an outstanding end on last year's squad after playing center at Warren High. With ten lettermen returning and the new and versatile methods of Werner, the 'Gators may go places, though their schedule is no soft touch. They open October 4 with Haverford in a warm-up, have an open date the following week, then plunge into a heavy season against Grove City, American University, University of Rochester, Thiel and Kenyon College—short, but not too sweet!

Quickies . . . The manager of the local Western Union office, C. S. Burtnette, visited this sanctum yesterday afternoon and presented the editorial staff with some very complete football schedules of all the major college teams in the nation . . . Bill Lundahl and Gail Templeton, ex-high school cagers, are heading for Grove City this fall and are even bets to show their wares before they win a sheepskin . . . And just to remind you again, though Zerbe won't be able to play with the Jackets this year, don't forget him as being the co-promoter with Frank Sirianni last year for putting the Red Jackets on the field when all hope had nearly been abandoned . . . Those two boys did that because they love the sport, and you can thank them that the local semi-pros haven't broken up . . . So, bouquets to you, pals . . . Not too soon to mention it in this burgh, but baseball fans might start planning now to get a committee or organization of some kind together following the football season to make plans for repairing the local ball diamond—if Sunset League and Sunday baseball are desired next summer . . . A certain press clipping from down the line from one who should know better stated this week that the Warren High gridders never were able to use any reserves last Saturday until the final quarter against Youngsville because of the latter's aggressiveness . . . The youthful scribe who wrote thus played in the game, and we'll remind him that the reserves rolled in and over him from the first quarter on . . . No less than twenty-three players seeing action.

EAST-WEST GO IN FINALS OF WOMEN'S GOLF

BY BILL KING

Brookline, Mass., Sept. 13—(AP)—California's chances of providing women's sport with another attractive poker-faced champion appeared bright taoday with its Mrs. Betty Hicks Newell engaging Helen Sigel of Philadelphia, in the 36-hole Women's National Amateur Golf title match at the Country Club.

During her march to the finals, the 20-year-old Betty has displayed the same grim determination that Helen Wills Moody did while she was reigning over the tennis courts.

Yesterday, when the breaks of the game were running against her as she opposed Mrs. Estelle Lawson Page of Greensboro, N. C., the 1937 champion, Mrs. Newell accepted each one in stoical fashion. She was equally impassive when, with her best-played putt of the round, a 15-footer, she squared the match at the 18th hole and then defeated the southern star with a birdie four on the 19th.

The much more spontaneous Miss Sigel won her place in the final bracket by defeating another southerner, Mrs. Frank Goldthwaite of Fort Worth, Tex., 3 and 2.

Miss Sigel, who had been forced to serve as a runner-up before she gained most of the sectional titles she has held, played the best golf of the semi-final round, thanks to a series of fortunate incidents.

One of them was hitting a spectator with her second shot as it was traveling towards a menacing clump of bushes on the ninth hole. The ball was deflected to the edge of the green, from where she chipped almost dead for a winning four that gave her a one-over 38 outward nine and a two-hole lead starting back.

Miss Sigel enabled the tourney to have its first east-west final since 1935, when another Philadelphian, Mrs. Glenna Collett Vare, gained her sixth national title by defeating Patty Berg of Minneapolis.

Eagles, Giants Battle Tonight

Philadelphia, Sept. 13—(AP)—Promising a razzle-dazzle kind of football, the unpredictable new Philadelphia Tagles get their baptism of fire tonight at the hands of the powerful New York Giants in their National Pro League opener.

Under new ownership of young Alexis Thompson, the Eagles have two of the league's most dangerous passing threats in Lew Barnum, former Giant, and Tommy Thompson, ex-Steeler, both flinging from the quarterback slot under the center in the spectacular "T" attack developed by Coach Alfred Earle (Greasy) Neale.

One of football's most wily tacticians, Neale for six weeks has drilled his charges on a fast-breaking wide open offensive. Not worried about the ability of his charges to score and score often, he spent the last few days in developing a defense against the powerful Giant ground attack and aerial threat. Already the outfit has won recognition for play against Green Bay's Packers who won 28-21.

Frank Reagan, former Penn State triple threat now with the Giants, won't be in the starting lineup but will receive early attention by being notified in pregame ceremonies of the time of his induction into the marine corps. The Eagles' 110-piece crimson-coated band will march on the field to start festivities 20 minutes before the kickoff at 8:30 p. m. EST.

Gas House Gang Can Take Lead With Win In Today's Struggle

By JUDSON BAILEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

The sensation-saturated series between the Brooklyn Dodgers and the St. Louis Cardinals, even before it strikes its highest pitch today, has shattered every possibility of deciding the National League race until the final days of the season.

The two teams are evenly-matched. Neither is great, but both are dead game and capable of carrying their neck-and-neck fight right down to the finish line two weeks from tomorrow.

In fact, the prospect of a tie is so plausible tahat President Ford Frick called a meeting with the two club presidents for today to map plans for a post-season playoff, just to be prepared.

Whatever chance there was for an early settlement was wrapped up in the Dodgers, who attained a two-game lead by capturing the opening tussle Thursday, 6-4, in 11 innings. But the feat of the Cardinals in crashing back to a 4-3 triumph yesterday quickly ended this sort of speculation.

The standings now:

Brooklyn	89	50	.640
St. Louis	87	50	.635

By winning today's grand finale the Cardinals could take over first place by two percentage points. Yet no matter which team takes this crucial contest, the day for clinching the pennant is a long way off.

If the Dodgers win today and keep right on winning every game they play, while the Cardinals lose every encounter from today on, Brooklyn still could not clinch the championship until next Saturday.

If the Cards were to start today and win all their encounters and the Dodgers lose every contest, St. Louis would have to go till a week from tomorrow to get the clincher.

The Cardinals' victory yesterday was accomplished with great gusto by the two oldest codgers on the team, Gus Mancuso, 35, and Estel Grabtree, 37. Mancuso tripled in the second to drive in one run and then scored himself. After two errors by Don Padgett had helped Brooklyn take the lead with three runs in the fifth, Crabtree duplicated Mancuso's performance with a three-bagger for two runs in the sixth.

While this was going on, the New York Yankees, already installed as the American League champs, learned that Charley Keller had chipped a bone in his ankle and probably would be lost for the world series. His absence did not prevent them from blasting the Detroit Tigers, 8-2.

The Boston Red Sox shut out the St. Louis Browns, 5 to 0, on Joe Dobson's five-hit hurling, and Johnny Humphries allowed only four as the Chicago White Sox whipped the Philadelphia Athletics, 2-0. Washington downed Cleveland, 7-4.

In the other National League engagements the Phillies stopped the Chicago Cubs, 5-3; Elmer Riddle pitched and batted the Cincinnati Reds to an 8-4 triumph over the New York Giants, and the Boston Braves divided another doubleheader at Pittsburgh, winning 5-0 after the Pirates took the opener, 6-3.

Schools Adjust Grid Schedules

Sunbury, Pa., Sept. 13—(AP)—Representatives of the Big 15 inter-scholastic football conference—hard hit by the infantile paralysis outbreak which has postponed practice scheduleh and early games—came here today to review their problems.

The members, said Secretary John W. Weimer of York, will "discuss the advisability of attempting any adjustment of schedules as well as to consider any equality concerning the training period for all teams in the conference."

He pointed out that at least nine of the 15 conference schools have been prevented from holding fall practice because of the disease spread.

It was also considered likely the school representatives would discuss appointing a commissioner to name officials for the games. Ray Hill, Philadelphia, commissioner of the Middle Atlantic Inter-Collegiate Football Association, who was to have outlined the procedure, will not appear, officials said, because of a conflicting engagement.

Another matter of business will be the selection of future meeting places.

Sports Round-up

By HUGH S. FULLERTON Jr.

New York, Sept. 13.—(—The Special News Service) — Well, "our bums" (spoken with affection) have become "dem bums" again and today probably will decide which will be permanent . . . Ford Frick must have collected a few tips from a good fight referee on how to go about that speech he made to the managers and the umps before the game . . . The crowds don't make it look as if St. Louis fans were getting very excited about it all, but maybe they're just saving up their dough to buy world series tickets . . . With Keller and Rolfe out, the Yanks won't have such a breeze against the National Leaguers as their supporters had been expecting . . . If the Cards win the pennant, maybe they'll decide to call the whole thing off and let the Medicos play the series . . . The Yanks' list includes Joe DiMaggio (sore wrist), Red Ruffing (stiff neck) Bill Dickey (bruised instep) and Buddy Rosar (dizzy spells) . . . The Cards don't expect to have Ennos slaughter or Terry Moore back . . . While the National leaguers were announcing they'd hold a meeting to decide about a playoff in case of a tie, the Yanks were announcing that all the world series box seats had been sold . . . That's the difference between the leagues.

FOR THE LOVE OF PAM

By VIVIEN GREY

YESTERDAY: It began when his Kerry Blue terrier nuzzled Pam Quellerton on the Key West beach. Jerry knew when Pam looked inquiringly up at him that something had happened that wouldn't be forgotten soon. He has taken her to a dance, and has kissed her good night, and Pam has suddenly realized that she has broken her rule against going about with "winter men." And Jerry wonders what about Freda Barington, who wears his ring—

Chapter Five

No Release

FREDA BARINGTON had always done her swimming and her beach lazing in front of Casa Marina in the colorful atmosphere of its smart beach umbrellas and smarter patrons.

But with slacks and jacket over a bathing suit that fit her supple body with unwrinkled perfection, she walked along South Street to South Beach. She seemed to wander aimlessly along the beach, but actually she was intent on a very definite purpose. Her eyes scanned the beach. They focussed on a solitary figure. She walked with apparent casualness toward that figure sitting alone on the sand and staring out over the variegated water of the ocean.

"Would it be madness to offer you a penny for your thoughts?" she asked as she dropped down on the sand. She removed the jacket and proceeded to roll the slacks up above her knees. She turned to Jerry then.

"Well?" she asked.

"You'd lose the penny." Jerry turned a serious face to her.

"I see. Then you want to talk."

"I don't know. The fact is, Freda, I don't know what I do want or that I want anything except one thing."

"That bad?"

"Worse. And I suppose you think I'm crazy."

Freda's fingers sifted sand for a moment, and then she turned a serious and pretty face toward Jerry.

"No, I don't, Jerry. I don't blame you at all. I understand. She's lovely, really lovely. If I could find anything here as gorgeous as that I'd go on an emotional spree myself for a while."

Faint color rose under the tan of her skin. "Perhaps I should blush at admitting being so utterly human, Jerry. Perhaps it's worse than human. Perhaps wanton. Maybe it's the wanton in us. Or maybe we're just bored with things as they are? Or is it the tropical atmosphere? Anyhow, exactly what you feel for the little Conch girl, I suppose I could feel for a Conch man if I could find one as nice. It's"—she sought the right words—"like the swell of the tide out there—as natural, as impossible to quell. And just as unpredictable."

She had gone on talking, too engrossed in her own thoughts to notice that Jerry had winced, that he'd seemed to drawn into himself. When he spoke it was in a changed voice.

"But you don't understand after all, Freda," he said. "It isn't that sort of thing at all with me. Emotional spree stuff, I mean. It's real. Real enough to last all my life."

"I know," she said easily, watching a bronzed local youth walk past. "Chalk that up to the atmosphere, darling. That strangely insistent breeze that keeps flaying at you, whipping up something inside you that you can't understand yourself. A sameness about the days that makes you want to do something different, just to mark one from the other. Sometimes," she finished on a note of low laughter, "I think what we need is work."

No Flirtation

JERRY looked at her casually. "Sometimes that gadget you use for a brain does produce a thought," he said. "And, by the way, stop flirting with the local boy."

"All right, darling, I'm flirting with a local boy. So what? You are flirting with a local girl."

"It happens, Freda, I'm not flirting."

"Call it anything you want to, darling. Your romance with your island flower can't get very far as long as I wear your ring!"

She was laughing at him, but Jerry paid little attention. Something else held him.

"Island flower!" he said. "Freda, that's exactly what she is! It expresses her perfectly."

"Or Conch girl!" she exclaimed in gentle irony. "Watch your step, Jerry, or you'll have conch shells growing out of your shoulders."

"That isn't nice, Freda. And your present mood is not in the least becoming. But I could have lots worse things than conch shells fasten to me."

"All right. I'll stop. Indulge your mood for your little local girl. You'll forget her as soon as you leave the island, or sooner. I'll forgive you. I haven't a jealous hair on my head."

"Freda, don't!" There was something in his voice that brought her sharply facing him.

"Don't what?"

"Talk like that. You're trying to soil something that's too lovely to be soiled."

"Go on, darling, rave away." Freda had turned to watch the youth who'd sat down now on an overturned boat. "I'm broad-minded. At least, I can be while I'm here. As I said before, I'm wearing your ring, and you can't laugh that off very easily."

"It happens I'm not flirting," said Jerry.

Tied!

JERRY turned away. He didn't want to watch Freda's flirtation, meaningless as it might be. The youth who had been sitting on the overturned boat got up slowly and went to Duval Street to sit there on the stone wall enclosing the lawns of the southernmost house in the United States, its cupola rising above a cocoanut palm plantation to look across the southern sea. The young man sat gazing back toward Freda.

Jerry looked at Freda. She was turned away from him, looking toward Duval Street. He caught just an angle of her profile. She was an arresting figure, he admitted. He felt sorry for the young man and a little ashamed for Freda.

Of course that's what Freda thought of his friendship with Pam. That it was just a beach flirtation. That was not flattering to Pam. And he, Jerry, was the cause of it. The knowledge stung him to the quick.

Suddenly Freda seemed to realize Jerry had been silent quite a long time and with a strange, withdrawn tenseness.

"Jerry, what's wrong? What have I said?"

"Probably nothing. Perhaps I'm wrong. But if I am, I can't help it."

"What are you trying to say?" There was a sharp note in her voice.

"Just that you've got me all wrong about Pam, Freda. She's the first thing my life has touched that I've felt was real and permanent, and something I needed."

"Jerry, what do you mean?"

"Just what I've said, Freda."

The girl stared at him for a moment. "And where does that let me off?" she asked in a low tone.

Jerry turned quickly to her. "Do you mind, Freda?" he asked.

"If I thought you meant what you've been saying, I think I would mind."

"But I do mean it."

"Jerry, you can't! You can't! Think what your mother would say. And Lenore."

Jerry stared out to sea. He'd heard very little of what Freda had said. He was wondering what Pam was doing at that moment.

"No, Jerry," Freda said quietly but with decision, "I can't give you up."

Battle of Atlantic Increases

Virginio Gayda, Italian Fascist editorial spokesman, said Italy and Germany would adjust their war plans to meet what he called a "de facto declaration of war."

Of the gigantic war against Russia, the Germans hadn't much to say today. They reported Leningrad and Odessa were under heavy air attacks.

The Russians, however, admitted loss of Chernigov, which sharpened the menace to Kiev, and said they had repulsed a heavy German drive toward Bryansk, midway point on the Kiev-Moscow railroad where the steppes begin.

British bombers struck at western Germany during the night and RAF fighters roared across the English channel shortly after dawn, apparently to strike again at Nazi positions on the French coast. Berlin acknowledged civilian casualties and apartment house damage in southwestern Germany, but no military damage. One British bomber was reported shot down.

Two Nazi night raiders were shot down over Britain, a British communique said.

President Roosevelt's orders to the United States Navy to shoot first against German and Italian raiders in American defense waters drew sharp comment in the controlled German press, which published extracts from his speech for the first time.

Diplomatic situations drew attention also in three nations of South and Central America.

Chilean police detained 22 Germans for questioning in an investigation of activities considered officially to be harmful to domestic security.

The Mexican government, expressing belief that a "war of continents" is imminent, proposed immediate formation by western hemisphere nations of a joint defense plan.

In Buenos Aires, German Ambassador Edmund Von Thermann protested to the Argentine foreign office against "calumnies" which he declared were voiced during House debate on a resolution accusing him of "overstepping the bounds of a diplomat and abusing his privileges." The deputies will vote on the resolution Monday.

three infantry divisions behind the 49th Tank Corps for the assault in the Bryansk sector, then added another tank corps, considerable air forces and nine more infantry divisions.

But, according to these dispatches, the Germans were thrown back from the approaches to the city to their original positions.

Nazi forces were reported to have been pushed back westward from the Desna river by the defenders of the Bryansk sector in a violent battle of the steppes at the approaches to Trubchevsk, 62 miles southeast of Bryansk.

In the same general zone, however, was the Red Army withdrawal from Chernigov.

Berlin, Sept. 13—(AP)—U-boats, still slashing at a Britain-bound convoy in the north Atlantic after President Roosevelt's shoot-on-sight orders to the U. S. navy, have sunk four more merchantmen and three escort vessels, the German High Command declared today.

The new bulletin raised the toll claimed from the convoy to 28 merchantmen totalling 164,000 tons,—31 ships altogether including the three war vessels. Two merchantmen totalling 11,000 tons reported yesterday as probably sunk, were included in this newer, unqualified claim.

First announcing the assault on the convoy in a special communique yesterday, the High Command said it included 40 ships heavily escorted by corvettes and destroyers.

Unlike the original announcement, which said the chase of scattered ships of the convoy was continuing, the communique today merely reported:

"In renewed attacks against the enemy convoy mentioned in yesterday's communique, submarines sank an additional four merchantmen totalling 19,000 tons as well as three convoying vessels.

"Thus, the enemy lost 28 merchantment totaling 164,000 tons from this convoy."

Germany's raised claim of the toll in the raid on Britain's commerce, which started several days before President Roosevelt spoke, followed official denunciation of his broadcast.

The president's speech, authoritative sources declared, "made no difference in purely formal diplomatic relations between Germany and the United States."

Asked whether the speech would receive an official answer, one informant countered: "We have not been asked for one." Later, however, he added that nothing could be said now on that point.

Reflecting the general attitude of Germany's controlled press, the Hamburger Fremdenblatt said President Roosevelt had "fired the starting gun in undeclared sea warfare" by issuing "shoot first" orders to the U. S. navy.

Plans For 15-Minute Blackout Monday Evening Are Completed

provided by him late each afternoon during next week. The sound truck will be contributed and operated by Norman Scholton, of the Warren Amusement Company.

Citizens who expect to drive to the business section to enjoy the music of the V. F. W. Band immediately after the blackout should be parked before nine o'clock and should not move their cars during the period of darkness, it was stated. Those who may be driving when the street lights are turned off should draw to the curb and turn out car lights.

During the period of the blackout, planes from the Warren Airport, led by Manager V. S. "Slip" King, will fly over the borough, simulating a bombing attack.

In addition to the flight Monday night, there will be formation flying by ships from the local airport on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings at six o'clock.

The blackout, according to H. B. Pettit, chairman of the committee, is being made possible through the wholehearted cooperation of the burgess, chiefs of the fire and police departments, the local barracks of the state motor police and the Pennsylvania Electric Company.

"It is being sponsored," he said, "to impress on the citizens of Warren the fact that our country is in a state of emergency, when the aid of every man and woman is needed in every patriotic project. The present project is the purchase of Defense Saving Stamps by everyone in the largest possible amount. The retailers, at the request of the U. S. Treasury Department, are making the stamps available in their stores for the convenience of their customers. It will help boost the total sales in Warren if every shopper will take part of his change in stamps each time he makes a purchase during the week."

It is announced that if the weather is not suitable Monday evening, the scheduled concert by the V. F. W. Band will be postponed to the first suitable evening thereafter. If it occurs Monday evening, it will be at 9:15 o'clock. On any later evening it will be at 8 o'clock. In any event, it will be on the lawn of the municipal building.

Scores of aviators from surrounding communities will arrive in Warren tomorrow morning for a 'Breakfast Rendezvous' as guests of the merchants' committee. Acceptances have been received from points as far distant as Pittburgh and Rochester, N. Y. Between 50 and 60 planes are expected.

The West Ridge Transportation Company will furnish complimentary bus service from the airport for guests and officials only. Others desiring to visit the airport during the morning's activities should provide their own transportation, since the buses will not be operating for the public.

The Warren High School Band will provide a program of patriotic music next Friday evening, details of which will be announced later.

The Importance of the NEW DODGE

Dodge launches its new models with the full conviction that never before have power and comfort been combined in so satisfactory a partnership . . . Dodge with its All-Fluid Drive has removed the last barrier to complete smoothness in the transmission of engine horsepower. Now, in its new models, Dodge increases the capacity of its All-Fluid Drive. And Dodge develops in the Power-Flow engine far greater power, speed and sparkle of performance, much greater economy—and a finer ride than ever.

ROCK BOTTOM ECONOMY—NO "PREMIUM" FUEL PENALTY—

The new Dodge 105-horsepower Power-Flow engines save, at least, a full ten per cent in gasoline. More important, they give top performance on "regular" gasoline. The new engine has greater piston displacement, larger intake valves, entirely new manifolding for greater heat to the new and larger carburetor. It has a heavier, more rigid crankshaft, a lengthened piston stroke, newly designed and placed piston rings, protected from the maximum engine heat. And Dodge in these new cars employs a new gear ratio in the rear axle — thus reducing motor revolutions per minute — with greater saving of fuel, of oil, and of all moving parts.

LUTHERAN BOY SCOUT MEMBERS HOLD MEETING

The regular meeting of Troop 12, Boy Scouts of the First Lutheran church, will be held next Monday evening, according to announcement made at the enjoyable outing held by troop members, patrol dads and Washington Class members, troop sponsors, at Jefmore Lodge Thursday evening.

At 6:30 o'clock, the large group of men and boys sat down to a hearty meal of sweet corn and hot dogs. Grace was said in unison by troop members. Later, a vote of thinks was extended the leaders, Lloyd and Floyd Rapp, who had provided the bountiful supply of corn.

In a brief impressive ceremony conducted by Scoutmaster Leo Gleese Scout awards were presented. Second Class Scout certificates and pins were presented to Kenneth Park and Donald Peterson. Scout Myron King was given a rousing "Howl" vote of thanks in appreciation of his splendid handling of his job as quartermaster at Troop 12's recent camp session at Camp Olmsted. First Class Scout Willard Smith, in token of faithful service, was presented with a certificate signifying his advancement to Senior Patrol Leader, which bore the signatures of all troop committeemen and patrol dads.

Arrangements for the evening were in charge of General Chairman Claude King. Supper was supervised by Committeeman Ronald Stover, with Assistant Scoutmaster John Ivor Larson; junior assistant Scoutmaster Regan Houston; troop committee chairman Charles Cable; patrol dad Milo Thompson; Scouts Myron King, Billy Engstrom, Dick Randall, Dick Thompson and others. Scoutmaster Leo Gleese welcomed the Rev. Edward K. Rogers as a guest at the party. A detail of Scouts cut logs and built a roaring fire in the great fireplace in Jefmore Lodge, which gave welcome warmth and cheer on the chill evening.

ham, Clarendon, Tiona, Saybrook, Sheffield, Barnes, Ludlow and the surrounding communities' election. It has been made possible by business interests which wish to bring humanitarian principles and the Golden Rule into everyday practice.

The business concerns that have aligned themselves with this newspaper in this cause are able to do so because of the support that has been given them in the past and because of the support experience has taught them to anticipate. This is a creative enterprise in which your baby, and every other baby in the community should play a part and receive a vital benefit.

The initial list of the leading firms that will give vote coupons with each purchase of 50 cents or over appears in today's paper.

The election will last a period of approximately nine weeks following publication next week of the first list of babies nominated.

Babies of this community within the age limit of six years may be nominated by any relative, friend or admirer. Mothers, fathers, grandparents, aunts and uncles, brothers and sisters, all admirers of babies, may nominate the baby of their choice.

Winners will be decided by the people of Warren and the surrounding community on a vote-count basis. Their votes for babies entered in the election may result from favoritism to any baby they know or may result from election of a favorite after seeing photographs of the entrants in this newspaper.

Babies of the coopgrating merchants, their employes, employes of the Warren Times-Mirror business office are not eligible to participate.

The Shower of Cash will be directed to nourish the opportunities of the baby they choose. Anyone who wishes to compaign for any particular baby may do so and the method by which votes may be obtained are detailed in the two page announcement in this issue.

Each baby, as soon as nominated, automatically receive a complimentary starting ballot of 1,000 votes. Vote coupons will be printed in each issue of The Warren Times-Mirror to be clipped and cast and each coupon will count for the number of votes specified upon it. A coupon appears today.

Business houses and professional men cooperating with this newspaper will give coupons with cash purchases made in their stores, and on payments on account.

The Warren Times-Mirror will give votes upon payment of subscriptions.

"Young bloods" of the moment—our babies, are taking the situation in hand. They are going to knock what remains of the depression off with a smile; beam on good fortune with chortles of blissful delight and reap a harvest from love-caused adulation.

The harvest will come when they have grown old enough to use what they now reap, as intended by the friends and relatives who do the sowing. Your votes for a baby now may clear for that baby a path of happiness. It may mean the difference when he or she is ready to stand alone between mere exsitence and actual living.

$2,000 in 30 cash prizes and commissions will be awarded—THESE CASH AMOUNTS WILL BE GIVEN THE CHILDREN'S PARENTS WHEN THE WINNERS ARE DECIDED.

Something New Under the Sun

They didn't have elections like this when adults of today were babies; business men did not organize together in such movements. This generation has made progress; it is upon this progress that beneficiaries in this election will base their advances.

Hard knocks of experience were encountered by most of the successful adults of today to gain their laurels. They never had a movement like this to pick them up on the threshold of maturity and provide them with means of assisting in gaining the business education which is daily becoming more necessary to success. These citizens in particular will appreciate the full virtue of this baby election. The winning children will have a nest egg to look forward to and a good will send-off to look back on.

It is this newspaper's sincere desire to award a cash award to every baby entered in the election; therefore a ten per cent commission upon subscription payments made in its favor will be paid each baby not awarded one of the regularly listed cash prizes, with this exception; no commission will be paid where the amount due is less than three dollars.

Complete instructions covering this feature will be detailed in a later issue.

Heaven-sent gifts of paradise are really to receive this benefit. This newspaper is more than a weather prop . It is the weather sender—it has definitely arranged and provided for the shower of cash which will give approximately $2,000 in cash prizes and commission to community babies, according to the plan.

It's going to rain dollars of opportunity for the babies we call ours but who will some day follow footprints of many other eminent community leaders to gain community-wide, state-wide, even world-wide influence for a happier civilization.

The Warren Times-Mirror's shower of cash is brewing. The silver-lined clouds are assembling.

THE ELECTION IS ON!

Rushing the Season

It's a bit early to come up with any extra-special football predictions, but maybe you noted that the season's first intersectional game is on tap tonight—Davis and Elkins of West Virginia vs. Catawba at Salisbury, N.
